Marshall Doesn't Look For Early Chinese Peace Moves

Wedemeyer To Testify At Inquiry

Washington (AP)—Just where the United States stood on the issue of a Nationalist-Communist coalition in China was the question that got top billing yesterday in the Senate investigation of Far East policy.

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer was called as the next witness with close questioning on the point in prospect.

The general, author of a 1947 report on China and Korea which the administration kept partly secret until the current hearings, now is commander of the Sixth Army at San Francisco, but has asked for retirement. He goes on the stand at 10 a.m. today.

The Senators' concentrated interest in the coalition question was indicated by Senator George (D-Ga.) in an interview. He said he is sure MacArthur was "absolutely truthful" in denying he ever advocated a tie-up of Chiang Kai-Shek's regime with the Reds.

Among other things, Wedemeyer said in 1947 that withdrawal of American occupation troops from South Korea would create danger of occupation of that area "either by Soviet troops or, as seems more likely, by the Korean military units trained under Soviet auspices in North Korea." He urged strict precautions against such a Red move.

The U. S. forces later pulled out under an agreement which also called for removal of Russian occupation forces from North Korea.

Wedemeyer's forthcoming testimony took on additional interest when Secretary of State Acheson last Wednesday handed the committee a December, 1945, message quoting MacArthur, Wedemeyer and Adm. Raymond Spruance as recommending that U. S. aid to China be used "as a basis for negotiation by the American ambassador to bring together and effect a compromise between the major opposing groups (in China) in order to promote a unified democratic China."

MacArthur on Saturday wired Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) to denounce as a "prevarication" and inference "drawn from anything I have said or done which would favor the forces of Communism at the expense of the forces of freedom and would effect a political coalition of such diametrically opposed and irreconcilable forces."

Knowland had asked MacArthur whether any such inference was justified.

Senator Cain (R-Wash.) inquired whether it was Acheson's intention to imply "that General MacArthur favored a Chinese coalition government to include the Communists."

"My intention was to give you, as I did, the exact words of the (1945) cable," Acheson replied, adding that he did not care to comment on MacArthur's telegram to Knowland.

Quake Rocks New England

Westerly, R. I., (AP)—An earthquake that rattled buildings and knocked small objects off shelves and windows shook sections of southern Rhode Island and Connecticut yesterday.

The Harvard seismograph station reported the quake was centered 76 miles south of its quarters at Harvard, Mass., apparently off the shore of Westerly, R. I.

The first shock was felt at 1:20:36 p. m. The station said it was "a very strong shock for New England."

The quake was accompanied by a deep rumble that sounded like an explosion to residents of the affected area. It touched off hundreds of phone calls to newspapers and radio stations. Some residents thought there had been an explosion at one of the Naval installations.

The Harvard station said that if the quake had been centered on shore it would have smashed windows and knocked down chimneys.

30 Passengers In Bus That Skids To Brink Of Precipice Overhanging Railroad Tracks

Stateford — Approximately 30 Greyhound bus passengers, who were headed south through here yesterday, got a sudden and unusual view of the Delaware river that came within a hair of being fatal.

The combination of rain-spattered Route 611 it's one-way traffic bottleneck and the heavy vehicle added up to near disaster and agonizing, anxious moments for the passengers and driver.

Shortly afternoon yesterday the bus, driven by John J. Murphy, of Sunnyside, L. I., N. Y., approached the one-lane section of the highway below the Bear Stop, where slides have made the outside lane unsafe for traffic.

The flagman on duty on the southside of the stretch had just waved a passenger car to a stop. Then he started flagging the bus, which was coming up from the rear. Murphy, according to Chief of Police Jesse Felker, applied his brakes and immediately went into a skid.

Chief Felker said the rear of the bus swung around near the flagman and the front end rammed over the bank.

Here in a precarious position, overhanging the DL&W railroad tracks below, it stopped. Approximately nine feet of the bus jutted over the edge.

A messenger was hurriedly sent back to Al Cox's Bear Stop for aid. Mr. Cox notified State police at the Stroudsburg sub-station who in turn called Chief Felker.

A wrecker was rushed to the scene and the bus was pulled back on the highway. Chief Felker related none of the passengers was injured and the bus proceeded south again on its own power.

Traffic soon became tangled in both directions after the mishap. Hundreds of persons stood by and watched helplessly as the vehicle dangled like a wounded animal over the steep bank.

Flagman have been on duty for several weeks at the section of the highway where slides made the road unsafe.

Road contractors recently began operations to widen the inside lane.

Senators Find 95,784 Men In Military 'Chair Corps'

Washington, (AP)—The Senate preparedness subcommittee reported yesterday, with sharp criticism, that it has counted 95,784 officers and enlisted men—most of them presumably fit for the front lines—serving in non-combat or "chair corps" jobs.

Cancer Deals Death Blow To Girl's Ambition

Kankakee, Ill. (AP) — More than anything else, Claudia La Marre wanted to finish college.

Then, last December, cancer struck, forcing amputation of her right leg near the hip. Her parents urged Claudia to quit school.

The pretty 19-year-old brunette said no and went back to Webster College outside St. Louis.

In April, cancer reached her lungs, and sent Claudia home to Kankakee. She took her exams at home. Just a few days ago she learned she'd finished her sophomore year successfully.

Saturday night, she died.

Rita Bars Reconciliation With Prince

Paris, (AP) — Film actress Rita Hayworth told her lawyer yesterday she doesn't want to meet Prince Aly Khan for a try at reconciliation.

The Moslem prince, heir to one of the world's greatest fortunes, had suggested they get together at a Caribbean resort. Miss Hayworth now is in Nevada establishing residence for a divorce action.

"I am unwilling," the red-haired beauty cabled attorney Bartley Crum, "that there be a meeting, believing that delay would be harmful to the interest of everyone."

The Prince and his father, the Aga Khan, are anxious for a reconciliation. Rita and Aly were married on the Riviera in a glittering ceremony two years ago.

Her lawyers here said there is no hope of a get-together despite the urging of the Aga Khan. He is the spiritual ruler of 100,000,000 Moslems of the Ismaili sect and Aly is the heir to that rule.

"This is wasteful," the group headed by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) informed the Senate in a special report. "It is an overhead cost this nation cannot afford to carry."

The subcommittee, a branch of the Armed Services committee, recommended revision of policies and standards by the armed services to use more:

One—Limited-service men in uniform, including many young men now able to play professional football and baseball but rejected or exempted from military duty because of minor defects.

Two—More women in uniform, such as the Army's WAVES and the Navy's WAVES.

Three—More civilians as instructors, office workers, mechanics, etc., in a long list of jobs now filled by men in uniform who are qualified for combat.

Investigators for the Johnson subcommittee made a "spot check" on assignment of men and officers at 16 training camps maintained throughout the country by the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines.

Although this is only a small "sample" of the "many hundreds of military installations of our services," the committee said investigators found 85,264 enlisted men and 10,520 male officers performing "some sort of overhead function" in the 16 camps.

"This is well over five divisions of men, most of whom are, presumably, physically and mentally fit for full military duty," the report said.

Margaret Truman Guest Of Attlee

London, (AP)—Margaret Truman wound up her whirlwind English visit yesterday by lunching privately with Prime Minister Clement Attlee at Crequers, his official country residence.

The visit was so private that details about it were confined to the bare announcement that Miss Truman was accompanied by U. S. Ambassador Walter Gifford and Mrs. Gifford.

It didn't even say whether Margaret was able to get in that game of tennis that the spy 68-year-old Attlee had promised her.

Taft Sets 1953 U.S. Spending At $90 Billion

Washington (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) estimated yesterday that government spending will hit a $90,000,000,000 a-year clip in 1953, exactly twice this year's outlay.

If his estimate is correct, Taft said, "I doubt very much if we can restrain inflation."

The Republican leader urged that "we spread our spending and go a little slower" in meeting the announced goals for defense. He set $70,000,000,000 to $72,000,000,000 per year as "about the limit to what we can do" without destroying public morale and endangering the national economy.

Senator Benton (D-Conn.) predicted, meanwhile a $4,000,000,000 cash surplus in the Federal Treasury at the end of the present fiscal year closing June 30. This, along with a tax bill now being written in Congress, would increase government revenue sufficiently to cover a $70,000,000,000 budget for 1952, Benton estimated.

Manhunt For Duo Reaches France, Italy

London (AP)—The manhunt for two missing British diplomats appeared to be narrowing last night to France and Italy.

Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison faces Parliament on the disappearance today and the head of Britain's counter-espionage organization heads for Washington and talks with the FBI.

British Secret Service agents, helped by local police, were still working frantically to pick up the trail of Donald MacLean, 38, and Guy Burgess, 40, which was lost in Rennes, France, two weeks ago.

Since then, the only hard clues have been three telegrams presumably sent on behalf of the missing men to their families the middle of last week. One, signed Guy, was sent from Rome to Burgess' mother. The other two were sent from Paris to MacLean's wife and mother.

Yesterday the Rome newspaper Il Tempo, which has close connections with the Italian police, said Burgess arrived "some days ago" in Florence, where he met an English diplomat. Then he spent a few hours in Rome, and left, "presumably for southern Italy."

"But he may have left the country," Il Tempo said, declining to disclose its source of information.

In Paris, British agents and police mingled with crowds on the sidewalks, in the cafes and in the nightclubs of Montmartre following reports that MacLean had been seen in the city. Another rumor came from Istanbul, which reported an unconfirmed Bucharest broadcast saying they had arrived in Prague.

DiSalle Forecasts End To Shortage

Philadelphia (AP)—An early end to the beef shortage and quick settlement of the meat price control problem was forecast yesterday by Michael V. DiSalle, price stabilizer.

DiSalle said in an interview he expected beef production to be "nearly normal" within a few weeks.

However, the chief of the Office of Price Stabilization said he believes there may be an attempt by beef producers to "call a strike as they did in 1946." He thinks such a move would meet with failure.

Thinks War Can't Go On For Years

Tokyo, Monday, (AP) — U. S. Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall said today "I cannot conceive of the Korean war going on for years."

However, Marshall said he did not expect any Chinese peace move soon.

"They have got themselves into a difficult situation," Marshall said at a news conference. "But they have the problem of 'face,' the importance of which is hard for us to understand."

Marshall said there was no doubt "the Chinese wanted to force us out of Korea."

But he said he did not know what the Chinese aim was now.

Marshall denied again that he had come to Korea or Japan to discuss peace plans or a cease-fire in Korea.

He also said that he had brought no new instructions to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Far Eastern commander.

The defense secretary said that while in Korea he had studied the Eighth Army's operations and the rotation of combat veterans.

Marshall said the Eighth Army had two main jobs: "To sustain itself" and "to repulse any attempt by the Chinese or North Korean Communists to enter South Korea."

Asked about military policy if a cease-fire were being discussed, Marshall said he doubted if there would be "any moderation of the Eighth Army's action."

Marshall said he would start the way back to the United States today.

The defense secretary arrived in Japan Friday night after a surprise visit to Korea. He conferred Saturday and Sunday with Ridgway.

"I came out here to see the Eighth Army and to make contact with its leaders, particularly leaders of United Nations forces other than ours, and to discuss details of manpower and rotation," Marshall said.

"I did not come out to take part in any cease-fire affair. I did not bring directives to General Ridgway. I wanted to see about rotation which is a great factor in morale."

Marshall was asked:

"Do you think the American people are prepared psychologically and other ways to maintain a war that could possibly go on for years?" he replied.

"I cannot conceive of the Korean war going on for years. I can conceive of the tension going on for years, but not the war . . ."

"If it were war, we could exterminate each other. We hope the military manpower system we are building will cope with the situation, but we hope it will be tension and not war."

Marshall said U. S. ground forces will reach the authorized maximum of about 1,500,000 troops by July 1.

Soviets Drop Bombs

Allied Nations Considering Another Public Peace Bid To Communists In Korea

Washington, (AP)—United Nations' governments fighting in Korea are once more considering a public peace bid to the Communists, it was learned yesterday.

While no decision has been made, it seems probable a statement on general terms for peace will be issued if there is reason to believe such action would enlarge the chances for a Korean settlement.

It probably would be along the lines of the proposed peace statement which the U. N. governments worked out for President Truman last March but which they shelved when Gen. Douglas MacArthur issued his own truce bid first.

It is understood that the United States and Britain, primarily on the initiative of Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Minister Herbert Morrison, are taking the lead in working out detailed terms and conditions for a Korean settlement.

Smashing Of Red Defenses Doesn't Necessarily Mean Another Big Dash To North

Washington, (AP)—United Nations firepower may be shattering the core of the present Communist defense line, but this doesn't necessarily presage a bold, new dash far into North Korea.

Practical military reasons can be the controlling factors, entirely aside from discussions, negotiations and understandings that may be going on at high policy levels far removed from the battlefield.

Secretary of Defense Marshall spent the weekend back in Tokyo assessing what he had seen in a personal visit to the fighting front and had learned during a talk with the U. N. field commanders in a command post tent on the line.

Marshall, muddy battlefield. In Tokyo, Marshall held hours-long talks with the U. N. supreme commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

Marshall insisted he did not bring to the Far East a new directive for the supreme commander. And in Washington, officials indicated that it still was in course of preparation by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and others. It now seems possible the directive, previously referred to in testimony before the Senate committees investigating the firing of General MacArthur, may have been held up until Marshall could bring back his personal findings.

Seizure of the Chorwon and Kumhwa base points of the enemy's "iron triangle" by the First Corps—a composite U. S.—Greek-Turkey-Philippine-Thailand force—was a major blow at the Communist defense line.

While Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky is recuperating from an illness and his first deputy, Andrei A. Gromyko, is attending the Big Four deputies' conference in Paris, Zorin is acting foreign minister.

On May 7, Russia rejected separate negotiations with the U. S. on a Japanese treaty and demanded that the Council of Foreign Ministers, which would include Communist China, be summoned in June or July to take up the question.

(The United States, replying on May 19, rejected use of the Council of Foreign Ministers to draft a Japanese treaty on the ground it would give Russia and Red China opportunities to "misuse" the veto power and thus delay drafting any treaty.)

Occupation Of Anchor Points Nears

Tokyo, Monday, (AP)—The reeling Chinese Red Army retreated today in the "iron triangle" after U. S. First Corps troops secured its base—the gateway to North Korea's heart.

Allied occupation of the triangle's anchors—Chorwon and Kumhwa—"appeared only a matter of hours," AP Correspondent Tom Bradshaw reported at midday from Eighth Army headquarters.

Greek, Turkish, Filipino and Thailand troops achieved one of the war's great victories late yesterday by seizing control of the Chorwon-Kumhwa area after a bloody eight-day battle. It opened the way for tanks to burst into the sprawling Pyongyang valley.

Tanks led one Allied spearhead to the outskirts of Kumhwa, southeast anchor of the triangle, 20 miles north of Parallel 38.

Other Allied forces drove on Chorwon, the southeast anchor, 17 miles north of 38. Four thousand Reds were seen streaking north through the shell-riddled highway hub.

The Eighth Army commander, Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, said the U. S. First Corps won military control of the Chorwon-Kumhwa area at 6 p.m. Sunday (4 a.m. EDT).

The eight-day battle cost the Reds manpower losses in the tens of thousands; huge quantities of abandoned equipment; and control of an area which was the fountainhead of two ill-fated spring offensives.

Red resistance dropped sharply today from Chorwon to the east coast, a twisting 75-mile battlefield. The Reds fell back in most of that area, leaving only rear guards.

Allied troops surged forward in a steady rain for four miles yesterday as they moved over the last low hills between them and Chorwon.

Artillery pounded both Chorwon and Kumhwa and the once vital Red supply road between them. The Reds' next east-west road is 63 miles north, between Wonsan and Pyongyang.

Two hundred Reds, dug in southeast of Kumhwa, fought during the morning in a delaying action. They pulled out as a tank-led Allied force roared close to the one-time Communist assembly center.

More than 30 miles southeast of Kumhwa, two Allied regiments swung around the east end of the Hwachon reservoir and gained a mile. Two other Allied regiments gained a mile northeast of Yanggu. But a fifth was stalled and beat off a counter-attack by 600 Reds.

A sudden Red withdrawal was made in a 27-mile area between Inje and the east coast. It was forced by Allied successes in the "iron triangle."

Allied tanks, once on the prowl up the Pyongyang valley, could outflank Red units in the east coast areas.

The only real Red fight was offered southwest of Chorwon in the Yonchon area and against Allied patrols near the 38th parallel north of Seoul.

There were indications, however, that Red troops were moving toward Kamsong, east coast city 25 miles north of 38. The South Korean 11th Division held that area under the bombardment of Allied warships.

But the U. S. First Corps, backed by strong tank columns and artillery, was taking the fight out of the Reds in the "iron triangle."

26 Injured In Train Wreck

Muncie, Ind. (AP)—Eleven cars of the New York Central's west-bound Knickerbocker passenger train jumped the tracks near Muncie yesterday, injuring 26 persons.

The road's double track main line was torn up for three-quarters of a mile, blocking rail traffic.

Of the injured, 14 were passengers and 12 were crew members, most of them porters and stewards.

All were taken to Ball Memorial hospital in Muncie, where attendants said none of the injured was in serious condition. All but two persons were released after first aid treatment.

Only one car was upset. It was a passenger coach four cars behind the twin-unit diesel locomotive.

Leighton Man New Head Of District FOE

Morgan Kemmerer, of Leighton lodge of Eagles, was named deputy grand president of the district comprising lodges in Monroe, Carbon and Northampton counties yesterday at a meeting of district delegates in the Stroudsburg aerie.

The two-year term of Edward Dreishbach, Allentown, expired yesterday. The post, heretofore known as district director, has been changed to deputy grand president by the Grand Lodge headquarters.

Delegates composed a list of recommendations for grand officers in the district.

Visiting guests included Al Williams, Bethlehem, state conductor of the Eagles.

Democrats Outnumber Republicans

Monroe county remains in the Democratic column—at least, insofar as voter registrations are concerned.

Figures just released by the County Election bureau for the July 24 Primary election show 9,737 voters enrolled as Democrats and 6,450 as Republicans.

Total number of voters registered in the county is 16,389, divided between 8,742 males and 7,647 females. This represents a decline of 520 voters from last year's 16,909 total.

Aside from those enrolled by the two major parties, there are 158 non-partisans, 37 independents, six Prohibitionists and one Progressive.

Boys To Kill Watersnakes For Prizes

Junior Sportsmen's club members are eligible for an exciting summer contest that can lead to a $10 or $5 prize. The Pocono Mountain Sportsmen's association announces these as prizes in a watersnake killing contest which is open now to all junior club members.

Contest rules are simple. Watersnakes must be killed personally by the junior club member and must be taken to Jacob Kintz, jobber, at 8th and Monroe Sts., Stroudsburg. There the snakes will be recorded and boys will be able to see from time to time how they stand in the contest.

Closing date is Sept. 1, 1951.

Only members of the Junior Sportsmen's club of the Pocono Mountain Sportsmen's association are eligible in this contest. Senior members point out that the killing of watersnakes is in line with good conservation policy, as many game fish are killed by these water predators.

Social Service Exchange To Convene Here

The Lehigh Valley Social Service exchange selected Stroudsburg as the place for its next meeting on September 14 following an annual meeting in Palmerton recently.

John R. Wilson, general secretary of the YMCA in Stroudsburg, sat with the board of directors for the first time. Mr. Wilson and Miss Mary Stevens, executive secretary of the Lehigh County Children's Aid, were elected as the result of mail balloting during May by the 78 member agencies of the exchange.

Mrs. Harold Gumble, Pike county; Weston M. Helsey, Lehigh County; Dr. Charles Rominger and Mrs. F. E. Weinland, both of Northampton county, were re-elected as directors.

Dr. Rominger was elected president of the board of directors at the Palmerton meeting. The exchange is a central clearing agency through which member agencies clear problems dealing with people and communities they serve.

A budget of $7,056.07 was prepared for 1952. Various Community Chests in the service area covered by the agency will be asked to contribute to the operating fund.

Luncheon was served at the Blue Ridge Country club. Mrs. M. A. Powers, one of the Carbon county directors, made the luncheon arrangements. It was the first meeting of the exchange outside Bethlehem.

Only about 46 per cent of the U. S. wheat crop is processed for flour, the remainder being discarded in milling, shipped out, used for feed or otherwise disposed of.

Mrs. Willard Succumbs To Brief Illness

Mrs. Olive S. Willard, 47, Aberdeen Rd., Elizabeth, N. J., died at 8:55 a. m. yesterday in General hospital. A visitor in this region, Mrs. Willard was stricken suddenly ill. She was the wife of Charles T. Willard.

A native of Elizabeth, she was a daughter of Richard T. and Sarah G. Bruen Savin.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Edward Atwater, 3rd, and Mrs. Robert B. Gibbey, both of Hillside, N. J.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Smith & Smith funeral home, Newark, N. J. Interment will be made in White Plains rural cemetery, White Plains, N. Y.

Couple Escapes Death When Train Strikes Overturned Car

Freight Bumps Auto Lying Along Tracks

Thomas Murphy, 27, and his wife, Ethel, 29, of Staten Island, N. Y., who passed through the harrowing experience of lying helpless in their automobile as a locomotive and 20 freight cars moved by, bumping the machine, survived and were in "good" condition at the Monroe County General hospital, East Stroudsburg, last night.

The accident happened about 11:30 Saturday night at the Point of the Gap, as the couple were driving in their light weight sedan on Route 611 on their way to Scranton, they told Fred Decker, chief of police at Delaware Water Gap. Sgt. Harold D. Larson, of the Lackawanna railroad police, assisted Chief Decker in the investigation.

The police said Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were approaching the Point of the Gap when the former who was at the wheel was blinded by a bright light, apparently from an automobile moving in the opposite direction. Murphy said he applied the brakes and pulled to the right of the highway. The car went into a spin, ran over the bank and landed on the left side, the front end almost on the east-bound tracks of the Lackawanna railroad.

Right after the accident, an east-bound freight made up of 77 cars came along, police said. Evan Lewis, of Scranton, the engineer, noted the motor vehicle lying alongside the tracks and made every effort to bring the heavy train to a stop before reaching the car. The engine and 20 cars bumped the front of the machine, however, before the train could be brought to a halt, according to the police.

Engineer Lewis and Head Brake-man Thomas E. Berger, of Stroudsburg RD 2, rushed to the aid of the occupants of the car and assisted the Murphys out of the machine. They were placed in the automobile of Bruce Colabaugh, of Columbia RD., who removed them to the hospital. J. H. Decker, of Scranton, was the conductor of the train.

Jesse Felker, Portland and Mt. Bethel police officer, went to the scene when he received a report of the accident, but being outside his territory, he was not required to investigate. He assisted in directing traffic for a time.

Mr. Murphy was reported to have escaped with multiple injuries, including his head, extent of which had not been fully determined last night, but his condition was reported as "good." Mrs. Murphy suffered minor injuries, it was reported at the hospital. Her condition was also said to have been "good" last night.

The light weight sedan was badly mauled, the entire front end being demolished. Damage was placed at $500.

Driver Faces Charge After 2-Car Crash

Long Pond—Two vehicles were in collision on Route 115 in the Long Pond area at 8:45 Sunday morning. Both machines were damaged and the operator of one of the cars was arrested for illegally overtaking another machine.

John Hubinger, a 21-year-old student, of Glen Summit, Mountain top, Pa., was operating a 1951 sedan belonging to Globe Coal Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, when he ran into the rear of a 1951 light sedan driven by William T. Omolaitis, 41, of Wilkes-Barre. State police of the Brodheadsville barracks, reported.

Hubinger attempted to pass the Wilkes-Barre man's machine when the right front fender of the former locked with the left rear fender of the latter. Omolaitis' car went out of control and ran into a guard fence.

The front fender, headlight and grille of the Hubinger machine and all four fenders, grille and front bumper of Omolaitis' machine were damaged to the extent of $350. Both were able to operate under their own power after the crash. No one was injured.

Hubinger was arrested by State police and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Isaac Dyson, this place. He was charged with illegal passing and posted a $1350 bond for his appearance for a hearing at a later date.

Skidding Car Upsets; Four Persons Hurt

A heavy 1941 sedan went out of control on the slippery pavement on Route 209, a mile west of Stroudsburg, at 7:30 a.m. Sunday. The four occupants were injured, two of whom were hospitalized.

State police of the Stroudsburg sub-station report that Mrs. Marie Schneltzer, 45, of Hicksville, N. Y., was driving the car in which her three children were passengers. According to the police, the machine went into a skid and moved to the left of the highway, catapulted over an embankment and turned completely over. The machine was extensively damaged to the extent of $750, the police estimated. The car was towed to a Stroudsburg garage.

Mrs. Schneltzer suffered possible fractured ribs and right shoulder and her daughter, Marienne, 15, lacerated scalp, possible fracture of right wrist, right ribs and bruised back. Both were removed to General hospital and reported in "fair" condition last night.

Two other children, Thomas, 10, had lacerations of the scalp and left leg and Linden Joyce, eight, possible fracture of the left hand. Both were treated at the hospital and discharged.

Bangor High School Holds Baccalaureate

Bangor — The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 114 members of the Bangor High school was held at the High school auditorium last night instead of the Lutheran Grove of Trinity Lutheran church as originally intended, due to the inclement weather.

Rev. L. C. Updegrave, pastor of the Reading Park United Evangelical church, formerly of this place, was the guest speaker. Dwelling on the subject, "Why Live," the speaker said man had gained control over nature, but not over human nature and never will. Therefore the purpose of living is to help others and continue in our struggle for a livelihood. He also pronounced the benediction.

Rev. Dr. J. Frederick Stolte gave the invocation and read the Scripture lesson. The girls' ensemble, of the High school, under the direction of Robert Cathcart, director of music, was heard in three selections.

The ushers were: Lorraine Viglione, Florence Schonover, Sallie Stinson, Shirley Roberts, Helen Fox, Beverly Biggle, Nancy Muffley, Elsie Reisen, Margaret Caponigro and Camille Falcone.

Engineers To Start Airport Survey Today

Mount Pocono—Representatives of the Michael Baker engineering firm of Rochester, Pa., arrived here late yesterday and will start work this morning on surveying the Mount Pocono airport in connection with a series of improvements contemplated by the Airport authority.

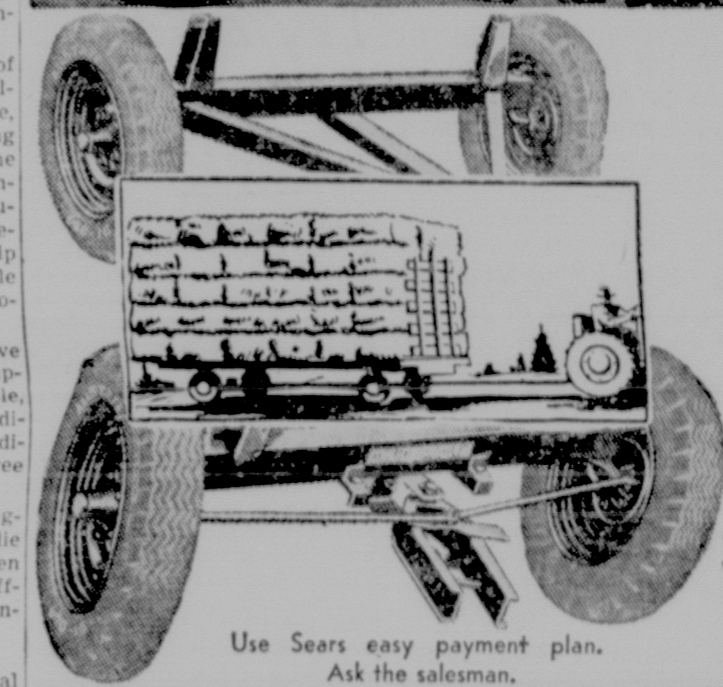

The projects will include lengthening and grading of the north-east-southwest runway to 4,000 feet to accommodate large-type planes. Jack Davis, operator-manager of the airport, reported last night that several multi-motor planes have landed at the field recently.

On Saturday, a party headed by George M. Brewster, prominent New Jersey contractor, flew here in a DC-3, airline-type transport. They proceeded by automobile to Mr. Brewster's estate in Pike county to spend the week-end. The big plane is expected to return the group to Teterboro, N. J., airport today.

Mr. Brewster's contracting firm built sections of the Lackawanna trail between Stroudsburg and Daleville, the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre airport at Avoca and a number of other large construction projects.

Miss Hazel Bush Is Bride Of Stanley A. Woolbert

Pale pink and white was the wedding of Miss Hazel Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Bush, of East Stroudsburg RD 3, who at 2:30 Saturday afternoon became the bride of Stanley Allen Woolbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Woolbert, of 177 Elizabeth St., East Stroudsburg.

Rev. Harold C. Eaton performed the ceremony before the candle-lit altar of the church where bouquets of white pompons and peonies had been placed. Other bouquets of mock oranges and other spring flowers were scattered through the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown over slipper satin with its illusion yoke rimmed with a wide ruffle of accordin gleated nylon. The sleeves were long and ended in points over the wrists while the full skirt had a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses tinged with pink.

Mrs. Robert Sebring was her sister's matron-of-honor and wore a dress of aqua lace with a white collar and full skirt with a matching lace headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink roses.

Henry F. Peters was best man and Gilbert Arnt and Calvin C. Bush served as ushers.

Ernest Michelfelder, organist, played for the ceremony.

Both the mother of the bride and of the bridegroom wore dresses of navy sheer with white accessories and corsages of white roses.

The reception for more than 200 guests was held in the social rooms of the church which had been decorated entirely with pale pink roses. There were two three-tier wedding cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolbert are now on a wedding trip through the New England states and to Niagara Falls. For traveling the bride wore a light brown sheer dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

On their return, they will make their home for the present on Elizabeth St. They were both graduated from East Stroudsburg High school in the class of 1948. Mrs. Woolbert is a book keeper at the East Stroudsburg National bank. Mr. Woolbert is a senior at Lafayette College in Easton.

Bartonsville 4-H To Study Cooking Project

Bartonsville—The first meeting of the 4-H club of Bartonsville was held last week at the home of Mrs. Donald Hartman when they decided to take up cooking as their project for the summer.

Refreshments were served after the meeting. Present were the leaders, Mrs. Russell Bond, Mrs. Donald Hartman and Miss Margaret McLaren, and the following members:

Beverly Bond, Linda Kresge, Joan Spragle, Beverly Hartman, Elizabeth Frailey, Lois Strand, Linda Strand, Nancy Canfield, Joyce Riday, Donna Lee Hartman.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, June 13, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Hartman.

Open House Is Held For Jr. Women

Members of the Junior Woman's Club yesterday found "a bright spot in a dull Sunday afternoon" at the home of their president, Mrs. James Cummings, 515 North Fifth St., Stroudsburg, who held open house as the final spring activity for the group.

Purpose of the open house was to provide an informal opportunity to get acquainted with members outside of the formal club meetings. The candlelit tea table with its cakes and sandwiches and sugared strawberries and pineapple formed the focal point for groups of guests.

Mrs. Richard Fredenberg and Mrs. Georg Stabenow poured while Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mrs. William Cummins, and Mrs. Samuel C. Wells III assisted Mrs. Cummings as hostesses.

Next activity of the club will be an early autumn fashion show.

Children Lead Program At Local Church

A full church yesterday marked the annual Children's Day program of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church school which took the place of the regular morning service.

Opened with an invocation by the pastor, Rev. Ernest T. Campbell, the program featured programs by the younger departments. Horace R. Westbrook, superintendent, welcomed the group to the assembly of all the Sunday school, one of the four occasions during the year when they meet together, and paid tribute to the teachers and officers.

The youth choir under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farmer gave the opening anthem "This Is My Father's World" with Nancy and Peter Westbrook singing a duet.

Members of the Geneva Fellowship led the devotion with Guy Dean III giving the Scripture lesson and Miss Ann Chandler the prayer.

The sacrament of infant baptism was administered by the pastor to John Michael Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Farmer; and to Thomas Carey Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Palmer.

Mrs. Elton Denling, superintendent of the Cradle roll, read the names of its members, and showed a bulletin board of pictures to be hung in the church school.

The nursery department directed by Mrs. Ralph Bender, sang a song; and the Beginner's department of which Mrs. Jonas T. May is superintendent sang a number of songs, and presented a birthday song for one of their members, Dutch Grimm.

A mixed quartet from the senior Westminster Fellowship sang two songs under the direction of Mrs. Leo Dornbos, and members of the senior department served as ushers.

A sermonette by the pastor was followed by a program of songs and Bible memory work by the primary department with Mrs. Roger Acker in charge. Dorothy May read the Scripture story for a pantomime junior department of which Mrs. Edward Hess is superintendent.

The Intermediate department was represented by a group of 8 girls in a floral exercise directed by Mrs. Jose Piza.

Mrs. Robert Wolbert served as organist for the service.

Pocono Garden Club Luncheon At Nursery

Tannersville—The Pocono Garden Club will hold a covered dish luncheon on Tuesday, June 12, at the LaBar's Rhododendron Nursery in Stroudsburg.

Mrs. A. H. Matheson, chairman of the hostess committee, has asked each member to bring her own table service, including a cup and saucer, as well as a contribution to the luncheon.

A parade of floral hats will follow the luncheon, with prizes for the winners.

In case of rain, the luncheon will be held at the Pocono township firehall.

Rae O'Harra Is Married To Robert T. Shields Here

The East Stroudsburg Methodist church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Rae O'Harra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gard O'Harra, of East Stroudsburg, to Robert T. Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields, of Honolulu, Terr. of Hawaii, at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 9.

Rev. Harold C. Eaton performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white nylon net with a white picture hat, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

They were attended by the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom from Syracuse, N. Y. The maid of honor wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories, and her flowers were formed into a lei of orchid petals.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, before Mr. and Mrs. Shields left for a wedding trip through New England. The bride wore a green and white dress for traveling with white accessories.

They will make their home at Springfield, Mass., where Mr. Shields is studying for his master's degree at Springfield College. The bride was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and attended East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Mr. Shields was graduated from a Philadelphia High school and from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

Graduates Have Outing, Supper Party

Activities connected with graduation week at the Smithfield Consolidated school have finally come to an end. In a year which featured two graduation nights, one for the ninth grade, and one for the eighth, which this year for the first time is the final grade at the school, the festivities were noteworthy.

On Friday, the two classes held an outing at Dorney Park in Allentown. They went by bus, chaperoned by their teachers, Paul Bartholomew, Mrs. Margaret Heller and Mrs. Dorothy Barry. The full day of park activities was climaxed by a dinner for the whole group at Walp's restaurant.

On Saturday, the students were the guests of Estelle Mitchell at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell at Delaware Water Gap. A softball game for both the boys and girls was followed by an outdoor supper on the lawn.

On Sunday, the high school, Tannersville, auspices Pocono Band Boosters.

Fred Bush Is Honored On Retirement

Tribute of a grateful community was given last week to Fred S. Bush, a graduate of Monroe county schools, on his retirement after 41 years of service to the schools of Bloomfield, N. J.

Mr. Bush, a brother of A. Roe Bush and Harold N. Bush, of the Stroudsburgs, was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and the old East Stroudsburg Normal school. He was principal of the schools in Pleasantville when he came to Bloomfield in 1910. He has been principal of Fairview since 1913.

The community designated June 4 as the day in which school and community leaders paid high tribute to the educator. Every room in the school was decorated in his honor, and graduates of years back joined today's students in honoring him. A buffet supper, and a reception at night climaxed the biggest celebration in the history of the Bloomfield schools.

He was presented with many gifts from the various groups he has served during the years. Mr. Bush makes his home at 145 Washington St. in Bloomfield.

Miss Geraldine Jasmer, Bible club teacher presented a flagograph study about Jerusalem after which group singing was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by the hosts Robert and Leroy Cyphers.

Those present for the meeting were Grace Labadie, Alysie Arnt, Marian Butts, Jack Ellber, Teddy Ellber, Billy Thels, Johnny Field, Bobby Cyphers, Bobby Field, Ronald Swink, Tommy Field, Leroy Cyphers, Miss Geraldine Jasmer, Bible club teacher, Mrs. Beatrice Swink and Mrs. Robert Field, Crusader representatives, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers.

Fire Co. Aux. Furthers Plans For Carnival

Tannersville—The Ladies Auxiliary of the Pocono Township Volunteer Fire Co. met on Thursday, June 7, with the new president, Mrs. Elsie Besecker, and the other newly elected officers at their posts.

Committees for the year's activities were appointed as follows: Membership, Cora Shook, Helen Martinell, Margaret Williams and Marjorie Neyhart. Entertainment committee, Gertrude Kaufman, Louise Metzgar and Agnes Moon. Sick committee, Beatrice Lotz.

Auditing committee, Katherine Kabalac, Harriet Smith and Lizzie Butz. The refreshment committee for the month of June is Cora Shook, Ruth Howell and Helen Martinell.

Reports were given on the recent bake sale, which was an outstanding success financially. Plans were discussed for the Firemen's Carnival to be held June 30 to July 7 on the grounds back of the firehouse. The ladies will hold a bake sale in connection therewith on June 30, July 3, and July 7, with Cora Sebring in charge. Donations will be most acceptable.

Harriet Smith will be in charge of the fish pond, and she will appreciate donations of 10¢ articles suitable for children for this feature. Katherine Kabalac will be in charge of the fancy work table and is soliciting articles for it.

Ruth Learn will have the White Elephant sale and is soliciting 10¢ articles suitable for children and 25¢ articles suitable for adults, to be wrapped and designated as to one of these two classes.

At the next meeting of the Auxiliary on June 21, donations for the various tables may be brought to be held in readiness for the affair.

VFW Auxiliary Today

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will meet tonight at 8 at the VFW home. A special attendance prize will be awarded.

Lentil soup with frankfurter slices makes a good Sunday night supper dish. Add a salad and pumpernickel bread to the menu, and for dessert serve cheese and crackers.

Everett-Staples Wedding Held At Baptist Church

Eleanor H. Staples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andres, of East Stroudsburg RD 2, became the bride of Russell H. Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Everett, of North Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the East Stroudsburg Baptist church.

Rev. Norman Savage performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a yellow organdy street-length dress with a long-sleeved bolero jacket, and a matching hat of yellow organdy, and white accessories. She carried a white Bible with a marker of white roses.

Mrs. Helen Staples, sister-in-law of the bride, was her matron of honor, and wore an orchid organdy dress with white accessories and an orchid and white hat and a corsage of white roses. Richard Everett served as his brother's best man.

The bride's mother wore light blue organdy dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses, while the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua taffeta dress trimmed with nailheads, and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for the immediate families was held at the Green Lantern tea room, which featured fresh flowers on the tables and a three-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

A reception for about 75 relatives and friends was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett are now on a tour of the southern states. For traveling the bride chose a navy blue rayon suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will make their home on North Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

The bride is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High school and is employed at the Art Metal Works, Inc. Mr. Everett was also graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and is a veteran of World War II, having served two years in the US Navy. He is associated with his father in the coal trucking business.

Gives True And Lasting Brilliance

Mike Carlton tells everyone about the part Car-Skin Reconditioner plays in true auto brilliance. He calls it the fastest safe auto cleaner ever made.

True automobile brilliance is not wax! Brilliance is reflected light—nothing more... nothing less! For instance a beautiful diamond will not shine or sparkle in a dark cellar, but when exposed to light it shines and sparkles like dancing sunbeams. Now cover the diamond with a dark and dingy film and then expose it to light again. What happens? It won't shine. Why? Because the dark dingy film prevents the light from striking the clear diamond surface... hence no reflection... therefore... no sparkle... no brilliance.

Now it's the same with an automobile as it is with a diamond... Unless the car surface is first made bright and clear—free of all oxidation and dingy film—will not give it true lasting brilliance; for the reason that wax coatings are transparent—therefore, light passes through the wax and will strike dull uncleaned car surfaces—hence no reflection—therefore, no sparkle—no brilliance.

NOTE: All good brands of auto wax (and new silicone coatings) protect and enhance the brilliance of a car, but unless the surface is first made clear and bright, there can be no true lasting brilliance. Brilliance is reflected light. It cannot be purchased in a can—it must be created.

Car-Skin reconditioner plays an outstanding part in true auto brilliance:

A. It is made to do one thing only—remove the cause of dullness and therefore make reflection possible (true brilliance).

B. It is formulated on the principle of dissolving oxidation, old wax and polish, tree sap, bird marks, bugs, stains, etc., instead of depending on hard rubbing, harsh abrasive action for their removal.

C. It contains a special dry cleaning fluid (first mentioned) in

Alignment Of Front Wheels Guarantees Safer Driving

Just what is the reason for having your front wheels aligned? R. D. Coss, your Bear alignment man in Bartonsville, has these few tips to motorists.

First, one step in the operation is to take off the front wheels and place the wheels and tires on an electric balancing machine and balance up the tire on the wheel. This method of balancing is done by placing little lead slugs on the rim of the wheel to counter heavy and light sides of the tire. After the wheel is truly balanced, the wheel will rotate freely and evenly.

The main purpose of wheel alignment is to make all four wheels roll along without scuffing, and to give easy steering through inter-ligated angles. Correct wheel alignment is important because it means increased tire mileage.

Remember, this service is available through your favorite garage or Mr. Coss personally.

Why not drive out to the Coss wheel alignment service, on Route 611 in Bartonsville, just 500 yards above the intersection and have Mr. Coss check your car for safer driving throughout the year.

London Paper Speculates On 'Retirement' Of King

London, (AP)—London's mass circulation Sunday Pictorial speculated yesterday that King George VI may "retire" from the throne because of his health.

The 55-year-old monarch has been confined to Buckingham palace for the last two weeks as a result of a "small slight form of pneumonia, medical experts explained. In addition, he has been suffering since 1948 from an ailment which blocks circulation of the blood. In his case it affects the right leg.

Diplomatic sources close to the court have commented recently that the King was looking much older, seemingly strained and tired. This could be due to the onerous round of public duties he has insisted on performing. But it could also indicate a general deterioration of his health.

Several newspapers have commented recently about the monarch's physical condition and appearance, urging that he be given a chance for rest and quiet. But the Pictorial article was the first to suggest that the King might give up his strenuous job.

And even the Pictorial did not mention the word "abdication," it said:

"The King's health is now prompting the question—will he retire into private life and pass the reins of sovereignty to his daughter, Princess Elizabeth?"

There was some speculation over the Pictorial's avoidance of the word abdication. This may have been because it has unpleasant overtones to British ears since Edward VIII gave up the throne to marry.

The King's advisers have suggested the Princess and her husband, Prince Philip, take over more of her father's official duties so that he might have a better chance of getting the rest he needs.

The Pictorial, in closing, said what almost all Britons apparently feel about their King:

"It would be a saddening thing to see a much-loved King step down from his throne. But it would be callous, indeed, to demand that he should sacrifice himself on the altar of duty. For we all know that this man has not spared himself—and would not—in the service of his people.

"But the answer to this question rests with his Majesty alone. And no matter what his decision may be, he must know that he has always the esteem and affection of his peoples; that he has made the monarchy an even more enduring institution than it was when he came to it."

Sabre Jet Crash Kills USAF Pilot

New Castle (AP)—The crash of an Air Force F-84 Sabre jet airplane at Hillsville, eight miles west of New Castle, killed the pilot yesterday.

State police said the plane burst into flames after a brief stay in the air. The pilot was being held pending notification of next of kin.

Somerset (AP)—A Navy fighter pilot was back at his Norfolk, Va., post yesterday after a brief stay in the Somerset Community hospital following the crash landing of his plane near here on a trip from Norfolk to Pittsburgh.

The flier is Lt. Paul A. Veres of near Pittsburgh. He was en route home on a cross-country proficiency flight when his engine failed near Wellersburg. He brought the plane down in rugged hill country near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border but suffered only cuts and bruises in the crash landing Friday night.

Catholic State In Indochina Loses Army

Hanoi, Indochina, (AP)—Msr. Li Huu Tu, the world's only Catholic bishop with a standing army of fighting men, has just lost them to French command.

The bishop is the ruler of a small (about 1,000 square miles) ecclesiastical state, Phat Diem, a small area some 60 miles south of Hanoi which includes a population of about two million persons.

Until last week, no French troops had set foot in Phat Diem for two years, except for a small French liaison mission. But an attack by the Communist-led rebels of the Vietminh changed all that.

The Vietminh sought to enter the rich rice-bearing delta of the Red and Day rivers by an attack through the Catholic autonomous region, apparently on the theory that this was the weakest link in the chain of defenses around the rice paddies.

Three regiments of Vietminh rebels broke through on a front of about 12 miles, capturing about a dozen posts manned by Li Huu Tu's forces.

This forced the French command to act, and Gen. Gonzalez de Linarès, local French commander, took over the control of the bishop's 5,000-man fighting force.

The general is French commissioner for Tonkin as well as commander in chief of the French forces there. Said he:

"The role of bishops is to say the mass, and not to wage war. I do not interfere with the way they say mass, and I would prefer that the bishops allow me to wage the war."

Fine Disavows Sponsoring Proposed Mercantile Tax As Solution To Deadlock

Harrisburg, (AP)—Pennsylvania's budget-tax deadlock took on a tighter outlook last night with a disavowal by Gov. John S. Fine of a proposed retail mercantile tax as a solution to it.

The idea of substituting a one per cent mercantile levy for the Governor's one-half of one per cent State income tax was advanced last week in the Republican Senate.

Fine, however, promptly denied he had anything to do with the idea but said he would give a mercantile tax "serious consideration" if the Legislature adopted it.

"I want to make it crystal clear that I am not sponsoring or advocating a mercantile tax," the Governor said in a weekend statement. "If the Legislature places such a tax before me, I will, of course, be compelled to give it serious consideration."

Fine, staunchly supporting his proposed income tax as "the fairest and least burdensome tax," described a mercantile levy as "at best a thin disguise and a poor substitute for the sales tax which many of the opponents of the income tax actually advocate."

The income tax bill, designed to raise $119,000,000 in the present biennium, passed the House with difficulty but has been bottled up for weeks in the Senate Finance committee. The measure was sent back to committee, when eleven Republican senators—sufficient to defeat it on a roll call—refused to support it.

The tax-budget situation may come to a head Friday at a caucus of Republican senators with fiscal officers of the administrative branch.

Democrats and some Republican senators contended the State's budget problems may be solved without additional taxes by reducing appropriations and increasing the figure of estimated revenues. Fine, however, insists that new

Berle's Television Marathon Raises More Than $1 Million For Runyon Cancer Fund

New York, (AP)—Voice-weary and sleepy-eyed, Comedian Milton Berle headed for bed yesterday after his 22-hour television marathon that raised $1,127,211 in pledges for the Damon Runyon cancer fund.

The National Broadcasting Co., which carried the program over a 41-station network, said pledges still were pouring in and that an exact total would not be available for some time.

Berle, who personally handled telephones on his third annual stint for the benefit of the cancer fund, said as the show ended:

"I'm very, very tired but very, very happy."

The comedian lost nine pounds performing under the hot lights. Posing for photographers after it was over, Berle yawned broadly in one "shot" and commented, "You think I'm kidding with this yawning?"

Asked about his plans after the show, he replied, "Sleep—just sleep."

Berle appeared almost constantly before the TV camera from noon Saturday to 10 a.m. yesterday. The cancer fund was organized in memory of Damon Runyon, author and newspaperman who died of the disease four years ago.

Aided by scores of show business personalities during the first 20 hours, "Mr. Television" went it alone the last 120 minutes. At his desk was a battery of 10 telephones. Behind him sat nine pretty girls also taking calls—a program window-dressing for more than 1,000 volunteer phone operators who worked in shifts throughout the day and night to record pledges.

Spectators drifted in and out of the big studio at all hours during the telecast. About 100 were in the audience as the show ended. The largest pledge came from Louis B. Mayer of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film studios—$25,000.

The second largest, $15,000, came from the Buffalo, N.Y., Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A few minutes before the show ended, a 10-year-old girl telephoned a pledge of $2 to come out of her piggy bank.

The program was telecast throughout the East, as far south as Jacksonville, Fla., and west to Omaha, Neb. The broadcasting company said more than $900,000 in pledges came from the New York metropolitan area.

Fire Takes Four Lives

Indiana, Pa. (AP)—Fire killed all four members of the George A. Bothel family Saturday at nearby Elderton.

Bodies of the victims—29-year-old Bothel, his wife, Betty, 25, and their children, Raymond, 8, and Susan, 5—were found in the ruins of a five-family apartment building.

Flames also destroyed the home of postmaster J. Frank Mulberger but his family escaped, as did the other four families in the apartment house.

Firemen saved the Elderton post-office, which adjoined the apartment house.

Flames apparently broke out in a drugstore which occupied the first floor of the apartment building.

Latex for rubber is obtained by wounding a tree which responds by trying to heal the wound.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Rain and wet grounds raised havoc with the local sports picture yesterday, further entangling the situation, at least as far as baseball is concerned. There were no games in the Blue Mountain or Pocono Mountain Leagues and there was no action on the Delaware Valley and Pocono Sunrise Speedways, as for the second time this season the Sunday athletic schedule was washed completely off the books. Recent postponements are making it difficult to reschedule games in the Blue Mountain circuit and much of this task will have to be handled at the regular monthly meeting, a week from tonight.

Pocono A. C. is one of the few clubs in the circuit with only one game to make up at this time. Stockertown has several contests to squeeze into the regular schedule and it may be some time before the two foes will be able to play the contest originally listed for yesterday. It was the second home game of the campaign to be rained out for Pocono A. C. this season, but the first contest, with Johnsonville, was made up during the same week that it was postponed.

Thursday's scheduled game between Pocono A. C. and Roseto, at Gordon Giffels field, has been moved up to Tuesday, at 6:15 p.m. The reason for the switch in dates is the fact that the King Brothers' circus will be in town and that there will also be a Flag Day parade. First place will be at stake when these two foes clash, and all concerned want to draw the largest crowd possible. If the weatherman cooperates, this contest should attract the largest paid attendance by far this season, as the two arch rivals square off for the most important battle of the campaign.

Tonight's meeting of the officers and team captains of the Monroe County Softball League may be the most important business session in the history of the league. The group is passing up its regular Monday action to iron out difficulties arising over fields and umpiring. There's no doubt about it that the circuit is in grave danger of collapsing if these two bits of trouble can't be overcome in the very near future. There are other items on tonight's agenda, but these are much less important than the field and umpiring troubles.

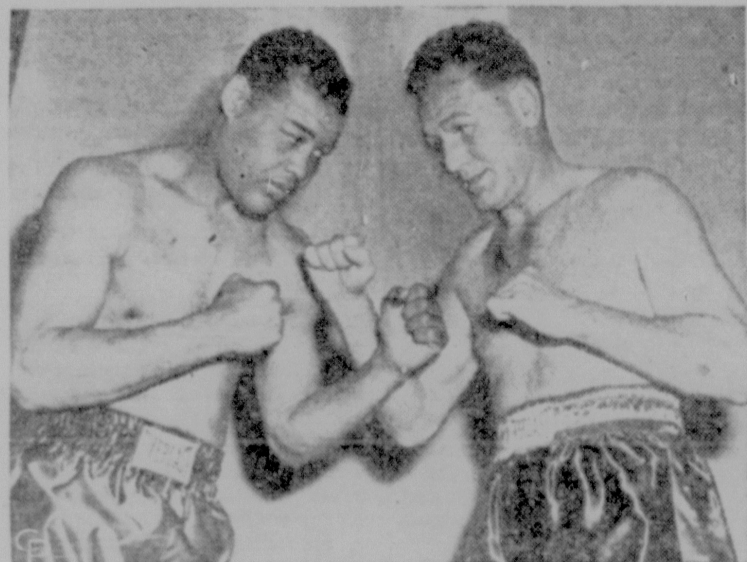

Stroudsburg's Little League is also slated for a business meeting after tonight's game. The number one topic on the agenda in this case is also umpiring, a division of the great game that has been causing the circuit plenty of trouble this season. It appears as if an agreement for the supplying of umpires, made before the campaign got underway, has completely collapsed. The umpiring situation has been bad for the past few games and at the present time there doesn't seem to be any improvement in the making. The circuit has decided to call a meeting and see what can be done about the problem, before it's too late.

Danny Ring, Oil City right hander, hurled an 8-3 victory over New Castle in the second half of a Middle Atlantic League doubleheader yesterday. Ring formerly pitched with Mahanoy City, North Atlantic League, and also hurled a portion of the 1947 campaign with the Stroudsburg Poconos, under his proper name, Dan Wazgrowski. Ring was at one time the property of the New York Yankees. Stan Pawlowski, third baseman with Cedar Rapids, Ia., is leading the Three I League in hitting, according to a late report. Pawlowski, the property of the Cleveland Indians, held down the third base post with the Poconos in 1949. Billy Joe Davidson, pitcher for whom the Indians are reported to have paid a $150,000 bonus, is reportedly on his way to this same Cedar Rapids club for the remainder of the campaign.

Doug Schoonover will hold a baseball school at Gordon Giffels field on Thursday, for boys between 13 and 15 years of age. Times for the event will be announced on Wednesday. The school will be the first step in forming a league for boys of this age group interested in baseball. Schoonover at the present time is busily digging up funds and equipment for the circuit that will give those too old for Little League play and too young for the American Legion team a chance to play baseball during the summer months.

George Macriostas, the Golden Greck and the Golden Terror, rivals in the main event of the most recent wrestling show held at East Stroudsburg High school, under the sponsorship of the Lions Club of the Stroudsburgs will be on the mat card at the Allentown Fair grounds tonight. However, they won't be meeting each other this time.

Rain Washes Out Entire Schedule In Two Circuits

Louis' Clash With Savold To Highlight Week's Ring Agenda

New York, (AP)—Joe Louis will attempt to clear the last obstacle on the way to a heavyweight championship shot when he takes on Lee Savold, the British and Spanish recognized heavyweight king at the Polo Grounds Wednesday night.

The 37-year-old Brown Bomber and the 35-year-old Englewood, N. J., blond are scheduled to go 15 rounds. The chances are that the old warhorses won't have to go more than six or so.

Louis says he won't need more than six rounds to flatten the reformed playboy. Savold predicts he'll do the flattening.

Louis, who has won five fights since his loss to Ezzard Charles, is favored at 12 to 5.

Crowd
A crowd of around 15,000 may pay about $100,000 to see the battle of the aged. The 9 p. m. (EDT) bout will not be televised or broadcast. Selected theaters in Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Baltimore and Albany, N. Y., will get a telecast of the bout over a closed circuit. The general public, however, will be out of luck.

There won't be any Friday radio-telecasts, either. The regular Madison Square boxing season is over. There won't be any more weekly shows until September.

The British and European boxing bodies, who refuse to recognize Kid Gavilan as world welterweight champion, will have a couple of their own contenders battle it out in Portcawl, Wales, Wednesday night. Bosox Take Two From Indians To Gain Hold On Third Place

Cleveland, (AP)—Boston's Red Sox regained undisputed possession of third place yesterday by twice defeating the Cleveland Indians, 9-6 and 8-2. Ray Boone, Cleveland shortstop, made four errors, two in the first game accounting for five unearned runs.

Tigers Sweep Doubleheader From Athletics

Detroit, (AP)—Dick Kryhoski, Vic Wertz and Pat Mullins supplied the home runs and Freddie Hutchinson and Bob Cain the pitching as the Detroit Tigers swept a doubleheader for the first time in their last eight contests. Kryhoski's second homer of the day came during the uprising.

Wertz, Mullin and Kryhoski homered in the first game.

Rally
The Tigers came from behind with three runs in the sixth inning. Ferris Fain and Gus Zernial homered earlier for the Athletics.

Detroit scored its last five runs on four walks, an error by second baseman Pete Suder and only two hits—a single and home run by Wertz.

In the second game the Tigers scored six runs in the third on two walks, three singles and two doubles. Aaron Robinson drove in three of the runs with a bases loaded double.

Cubs Stop Maglie While Dividing With Giants

New York, (AP)—The Chicago Cubs crushed Sam Maglie's nine-game winning streak yesterday, knocking the right-hander out of the box early to win the second game of a doubleheader, 7-3, after the New York Giants had won the opener, 6-1. Bob Rush spaced ten hits for his fourth victory in the nightcap. Larry Jansen, aided by four homers, gained his sixth triumph for New York in the opener.

Home runs by Don Mueller, Wes Westrum, Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky eased the way for Jansen in the first. Each of the four clubs came with none on.

The Cubs got their lone run in the first on Ransom Jackson's double and Frank Baumholtz's single.

Trouble
Maglie, who hadn't lost since April 26, was in trouble from the start. The Cubs reached him for three singles and a run in the first inning and repeated the trick in the second. In the third, home runs by Jackson and Andy Pafko brought two more Chicago tallies. When Forrest Burgess singled and Johnny Cusick walked to open the fourth, Maglie was removed and Allen Gettel came in. A wild throw to first by Gettel permitted the Cubs to

Homer Gives Pirates Split With Dodgers

Brooklyn, (AP)—Ralph Kiner hammered his fifteenth home run, his second of the game, with Pete Reiser on base in the top of the eleventh inning yesterday to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 5-4 victory and a split in their doubleheader with Brooklyn. Ralph Branca won his fifth game besting Bob Friend in a pitching duel as the Dodgers won the opener, 2-1.

Kiner's belt against the wind in the stands in left center came after Reiser had worked Carl Erskine, the third Brooklyn pitcher, for a walk after one out. Brooklyn tallied one run in its half on a double by Roy Campanella and two infield outs.

Early Homers
Kiner and Gus Bell hit early homers off Clarence Podbielniak, making his first start. Bell drove in the home run king with a single in the sixth to give the Bucs' young Paul La Palme a 3-0 lead.

"Duke" Snider's two-run homer, his thirteenth, in the seventh and Carl Furillo's round tripper tied the score in the eighth. That brought in Willie Werle who finished to win his third game.

Furillo was the hitting star of Ralph Branca's fourth straight one-run victory in the first game, accounting for three of the five hits off Friend. Branca gave up six, but hurled shutout ball after a double by "Frank" Schenz and a single by George Metkovich scored the lone Pittsburgh run with none out in the first.

A double by Furillo tied the score in the second. Furillo's single scored Jackie Robinson, who had doubled, with what proved to be the winning run in the fourth.

Judge Albert Cooper, of Trenton, who represented this country in the Olympics on the 1928 soccer team and who later played professional basketball, and Howard Ehmke, Philadelphia, one of the all-time great baseball pitchers who was a member of Connie Mack's last world's championship Athletics, also will be in the field.

Judge Cooper, who stands six feet four inches, is a two handicap player; Ehmke boasts a handicap of five.

According to head pro Harry Obitz this year's Shawnee Invitation will top 175 entries. The New York metropolitan district will be heavily represented as will the Philadelphia district. Upper New York, South Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and the New England states also will contribute large entries to the event.

The invitation tournament is the first of a series of national events to be scheduled for the Pocono resort club this season. The Shawnees vs. Delaware golf matches will be held the week of July 15-22; The Philadelphia District PGA will be held August 20-26, and the Waite and Old Masters tournaments, September 5-9.

A large field is also expected for tomorrow's Senatorial Sweepstakes, a golf tournament that will feature the celebration of Republican Day at this resort.

Little League Contest

Chisox Retain Sizeable Lead In American League By Dividing Doubleheader With Yanks

Chicago, (AP)—The Chicago White Sox hammered six New York pitchers for 14 hits and a wild 11-7 nightcap win yesterday after the Yankees won the doubleheader opener and third straight decision from the Comiskey 2-1.

The split left the Pale Hose with a two and one-half game lead in the American league and sent 52,054 riotous fans home happy.

Yogi Berra's two-run double in the first inning and a homer in the third shoved the Yankees ahead 4-0 in the nightcap.

Singles by Jim Busby, who stole two bases in the game, Pinchhitter Floyd Baker, Bob Dillinger and Minnie Minoso plus doubles by Phil Masi and Nellie Fox gave the White Sox five runs in the fifth.

Hits by Johnny Hopp, Gerry Coleman and Pinch-batter Joe DiMaggio accounted for two more Yankee tallies in the sixth and sent them ahead 6-5.

Two Tallies
But the lead again was short-lived as the rambunctious Sox punched two runs in the sixth. One of them was forced in by a walk off Tommy Byrne with the bases full.

The Yanks tied it up in the seventh, 7-7, when Gene Woodling scored behind singles by Berra and Bobby Brown.

Then came the deluge. Four White Sox runs in the eighth off Joe Ostrowski and Fred Sanford were unearned. Pitcher Randy Gumpert's grounder went through Phil Rizzuto. Then followed a sacrifice by Fox, an intentional walk to Minoso, and successive hits by Eddie Robinson, Don Lenhardt and Busby.

The firecracker-shooting, paper-throwing crowd had little to scream about in the first contest. The Yankees bunched three of their six hits off Saul Rogovin in the fifth for one run with Mickey Mantle's blow scoring Jackie Jensen.

New York scored the clincher in the eighth when Eddie Lopat singled and eventually tallied on Woodling's long fly.

The Sox collected two hits for their only run in the sixth. Fox led off with a single past Kuzotto. Minoso's hit to center put Fox on third and he came home as Coleman tossed out Lenhardt at first.

Wrestling Program At Allentown

Allentown — Don Eagle, the greatest grappler of them all, will be one of the main event principals when promoter Bert Bertolini inaugurates the outdoor wrestling season at the Allentown Fairgrounds tonight.

Tough Foe
Providing the opposition for the National Wrestling Association champion will be the 268-pound Golden Terror, who figured in several sensational brawls here during the past indoor season.

This will be Don Eagle's first showing in this city and his debut is expected to attract what may prove to be the largest crowd ever to witness a grappling match here.

Lambert Sets New Course Mark On Mountain Manor Fairways

Marshall's Creek—Ray Lambert, golf professional at Mountain Manor, set a new course record here yesterday, with a blistering 27 on the par 36 nine-hole course. Playing 18 holes Lambert, former assistant pro at Glen Brook, shot a 60, touring the first nine in 33 and retracing his steps in six less strokes the next time around.

Former Low

The former low mark was held by John Kupiec, formerly of Stroudsburg, who shot a 28 previously.

Lambert played with Mike Riter and Don Hawk, both of Philadelphia and guests at Mountain Manor.

Riter shot a 42-44-86, while Hawk came up with rounds of 36-35, for a 71 total.

Roseto To Play Pocono A. C. Tomorrow

Rain washed out the entire baseball schedule in both the Blue Mountain and Pocono Mountain Leagues yesterday, as a total of nine contests were washed off the books by the rain which lasted far into the night. In all probability the postponed games in the Pocono Mountain League will be made up at the end of the season or as part of a doubleheader, but none of the Blue Mountain League teams could state last night when they would make up the rained-out battles.

Although none of the Blue Mountain League teams could tell when yesterday's games would be played, the circuit faces a full week of action on all fronts.

The top contest of the week will find Roseto A. A. invading Gordon Giffels field tomorrow night to meet Pocono A. C., with first place at stake. The contest was originally set for Thursday, but was advanced by an agreement of the two clubs. Game time is 6:15.

Roseto inflicted the first loss of the campaign on Pocono A. C. earlier in the season, with a 6-5 victory in 12 innings.

East Bangor will be at Stockertown tomorrow, while West Bangor invades Johnsonville and Portland plays at Tatamy.

Wednesday
East Bangor and Portland tangle on Wednesday, at Portland, while Stockertown invades Tatamy on Thursday.

Next Sunday's slate in this circuit finds Portland meeting Pocono A. C. at Giffels field, while West Bangor stacks up against Roseto, at Roseto, and Stockertown invades East Bangor and Tatamy is at Johnsonville.

Yesterday's rained out games called for Stockertown to meet Pocono A. C. in Bangor and Tatamy was at Roseto.

The Pocono Mountain League games halted yesterday were scheduled to find Saylorsburg at Ansonia, Lake Harmony at Barrett, Pocono Lake at Kunkelton, Tannersville at Reiders and West End A. C. at Tobyhanna.

Next Sunday's schedule calls for Barrett to invade Kunkelton, Ansonia at Lake Harmony, Tannersville at Pocono Lake, West End at Reiders and Tobyhanna at Saylorsburg.

'Candida' To Star Olivia DeHavilland

Mountainhome — The sparkling and human play "Candida," by George Bernard Shaw, chosen as the opening vehicle of the Pocono Playhouse here on June 18, has been described as the best comedy written for the English speaking theater in the last 100 years.

"Candida" is Shaw's witty testament to love. It tells the story of a warmhearted and gracious lady whose tact and intelligence have contributed greatly to the success of her husband. When an adolescent poet falls in love with her, Candida's husband becomes alarmed and declares his wife must choose between him and the poet. Her decision is an exciting and interesting one with the man who needed her most winning out.

Hailed by many critics and audiences as the best play Shaw ever wrote, "Candida," has been successfully presented in three major revivals on Broadway in the last decade with Katherine Cornell, playing the part of the enchanting heroine in each engagement.

Olivia DeHavilland, one of Hollywood's greatest dramatic actresses will be seen as "Candida" when it opens at the Pocono Playhouse on Monday night, June 18. Kendall Clark will have the role of her husband with Richard Shephard cast as the lover poet. Others in the cast include Frank Leslie and Katherine Squire.

The play is under the supervision of Richard Bender and will continue from June 18 to 23, with matinee scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday. Reservations for seats may be made by calling Cresco 8401. Mail orders will be promptly filled.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

FOR MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1951

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — With proper self-confidence, pluck and persistence, you can make appreciable gains notwithstanding some obstacles and contradictions. But don't confuse progress with plain force.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — Most inspiring period for surgery, chemistry, research, mechanics, technical advancement in construction, retraining, mining. Be wary of health; it may be tempted by overindulgence.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Especially good day for labor and employer alike, if right attitude and ambitions are foremost. Do a surety day's work without negligence. Avoid useless legal and other entanglements.

June 22 to July 21 (Cancer) — Keep neatly occupied. Don't depend wholly on others. Answers of ideas, and be prompt about obligations—and you will get much farther than you think you can. Analyze people carefully.

July 22 to August 22 (Leo) — State government affairs, aggressive action along new lines whether in your regular business or other activities have fresh impetus. Take matters with ease let others voice their opinions.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo) — Fairly stimulating, aggressive action. Merchandising of foods, clothes, industry, military interests may have some difficulties, but all have obstacles to overcome.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — Police, the military, workers. Handling children's activities and social service work lead the parade of the highly sponsored this good-for-good workers day.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — May have to put forth extra effort.

Mary Lake Knows How To Make Elephants Perform

Everyone knows that elephants are intelligent animals, and the fact that they perform better for women than they do for men, proves it beyond a doubt. And, when one looks at the girls who present the huge beasts in the rings of the King Brothers Circus, coming to East Stroudsburg, Thursday, June 14 for afternoon and night performances at the old ball park, there just can't be any argument about it for the girls are very, very attractive and they know their job.

Mary Lake, pictured above with "Ol Marm"—said to be nearly 100 years old, is a girl who knows elephants. She can make them do their stuff and like it—and, like her, too, you'll agree after you see her in the center ring as she puts them through their paces.

A prior glimpse of the huge lumbering beasts will be given circus fans show day when "the parade of the elephants" is presented down town at noon as a reminder of circus day and the scores of thrills in store for youngsters of all ages.

More than 700 people comprise the personnel of the big show this season with literally scores of internationally known stars and features, headed as they are by the renowned Cristian Family of bareback riding marvels, with Lucio, conceded the greatest riding comedian in all circus history.

The performance will begin at 2 and 8 p. m., with the main gates opening at 1 and 7 p. m.

Marshall Doesn't Look For Early Chinese Peace Moves

Wedemeyer To Testify At Inquiry

Washington (AP)—Just where the United States stood on the issue of a Nationalist-Communist coalition in China was the question that got top billing yesterday in the Senate investigation of Far East policy.

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer was called as the next witness with close questioning on the point in prospect.

The general, author of a 1947 report on China and Korea which the administration kept partly secret until the current hearings, now is commander of the Sixth Army at San Francisco, but has asked for retirement. He goes on the stand at 10 a.m. today.

The Senators' concentrated interest in the coalition question was indicated by Senator George (D-Ga.) in an interview. He said he is sure MacArthur was "absolutely truthful" in denying he ever advocated a tie-up of Chiang Kai-Shek's regime with the Reds.

Among other things, Wedemeyer said in 1947 that withdrawal of American occupation troops from South Korea would create danger of occupation of that area "either by Soviet troops or, as seems more likely, by the Korean military units trained under Soviet auspices in North Korea." He urged strict precautions against such a Red move.

The U. S. forces later pulled out under an agreement which also called for removal of Russian occupation forces from North Korea.

Wedemeyer's forthcoming testimony took on additional interest when Secretary of State Acheson last Wednesday handed the committee a December, 1945, message quoting MacArthur, Wedemeyer and Adm. Raymond Spruance as recommending that U. S. aid to China be used "as a basis for negotiation by the American ambassador to bring together and effect a compromise between the major opposing groups (in China) in order to promote a unified democratic China."

MacArthur on Saturday wired Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) to denounce as a "prevarication" and inference "drawn from anything I have said or done which would favor the forces of Communism at the expense of the forces of freedom and would effect a political coalition of such diametrically opposed and irreconcilable forces."

Knowland had asked MacArthur whether any such inference was justified.

Senator Cain (R-Wash.) inquired whether it was Acheson's intention to imply "that General MacArthur favored a Chinese coalition government to include the Communists."

"My intention was to give you, as I did, the exact words of the (1945) cable," Acheson replied, adding that he did not care to comment on MacArthur's telegram to Knowland.

Quake Rocks New England

Westerly, R. I. (AP)—An earthquake that rattled buildings and knocked small objects off shelves and windows shook sections of southern Rhode Island and Connecticut yesterday.

The Harvard seismograph station reported the quake was centered 76 miles south of its quarters at Harvard, Mass., apparently off the shore of Westerly, R. I.

The first shock was felt at 1:20:36 p. m. The station said it was "a very strong shock for New England."

The quake was accompanied by a deep rumble that sounded like an explosion to residents of the affected area. It touched off hundreds of phone calls to newspapers and radio stations. Some residents thought there had been an explosion at one of the Naval installations.

The Harvard station said that if the quake had been centered on shore it would have smashed windows and knocked down chimneys.

30 Passengers In Bus That Skids To Brink Of Precipice Overhanging Railroad Tracks

Stateford—Approximately 30 Greyhound bus passengers, who were headed south through here yesterday, got a sudden and unusual view of the Delaware river that came within a hair of being fatal.

The combination of rain-spattered Route 611 it's one-way traffic bottleneck and the heavy vehicle added up to near disaster and agonizing, anxious moments for the passengers and driver.

Shortly after noon yesterday the bus, driven by John J. Murphy, of Sunnyside, L. I., N. Y., approached the one-lane section of the highway below the Bear Stop, where slides have made the outside lane unsafe for traffic.

The flagman on duty on the southside of the stretch had just waved a passenger car to a stop.

Then he started flagging the bus, which was coming up from the rear. Murphy, according to Chief of Police Jesse Felker, applied his brakes and immediately went into a skid.

Chief Felker said the rear of the bus swung around near the flagman and the front end rammed over the bank.

Here in a precarious position, overhanging the DL&W railroad tracks below, it stopped. Approximately nine feet of the bus jutted over the edge.

A messenger was hurriedly sent back to Al Cox's Bear Stop for aid. Mr. Cox notified State police at the Stroudsburg sub-station who in turn called Chief Felker.

A wrecker was rushed to the scene and the bus was pulled back on the highway. Chief Felker related none of the passengers was injured and the bus proceeded south again on its own power.

Traffic soon became tangled in both directions after the mishap. Hundreds of persons stood by and watched helplessly as the vehicle dangled like a wounded animal over the steep bank.

Flagman have been on duty for several weeks at the section of the highway where slides made the road unsafe.

Road contractors recently began operations to widen the inside lane.

Senators Find 95,784 Men In Military 'Chair Corps'

Washington, (AP)—The Senate preparedness subcommittee reported yesterday, with sharp criticism, that it has counted 95,784 officers and enlisted men—most of them presumably fit for the front lines—serving in non-combat or "chair corps" jobs.

Cancer Deals Death Blow To Girl's Ambition

Kankakee, Ill. (AP)—More than anything else, Claudia La Marre wanted to finish college.

Then, last December, cancer struck, forcing amputation of her right leg near the hip. Her parents urged Claudia to quit school.

The pretty 19-year-old brunette said no and went back to Webster College outside St. Louis.

In April, cancer reached her lungs, and sent Claudia home to Kankakee. She took her exams at home. Just a few days ago she learned she'd finished her sophomore year successfully.

Saturday night, she died.

Rita Bars Reconciliation With Prince

Paris, (AP)—Film actress Rita Hayworth told her lawyer yesterday she doesn't want to meet Prince Ali Khan for a try at reconciliation.

The Moslem prince, heir to one of the world's greatest fortunes, had suggested they get together at a Caribbean resort. Miss Hayworth now is in Nevada establishing residence for a divorce action.

"I am unwilling," the red-haired beauty cabled attorney Bartley Crum, "that there be a meeting, believing that delay would be harmful to the interest of everyone."

The Prince and his father, the Aga Khan, are anxious for a reconciliation. Rita and Ali were married on the Riviera in a glittering ceremony two years ago.

Her lawyers here said there is no hope of a get-together despite the urging of the Aga Khan. He is the spiritual ruler of 100,000,000 Moslems of the Ismaili sect and Ali is the heir to that rule.

"This is wasteful," the group headed by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) informed the Senate in a special report. "It is an overhead cost this nation cannot afford to carry."

The subcommittee, a branch of the Armed Services committee, recommended revision of policies and standards by the armed services to use more:

One—Limited-service men in uniform, including many young men now able to play professional football and baseball but rejected or exempted from military duty because of minor defects.

Two—More women in uniform, such as the Army's WACS and the Navy's WAVES.

Three—More civilians as instructors, office workers, mechanics, etc., in a long list of jobs now filled by men in uniform who are qualified for combat.

Investigators for the Johnson subcommittee made a "spot check" on assignment of men and officers at 16 training camps maintained throughout the country by the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines.

Although this is only a small "sample" of the "many hundreds of military installations of our services," the committee said investigators found 85,264 enlisted men and 10,520 male officers performing "some sort of overhead function" in the 16 camps.

"This is well over five divisions of men, most of whom are, presumably, physically and mentally fit for full military duty," the report said.

Margaret Truman Guest Of Attlee

London, (AP)—Margaret Truman wound up her whirlwind English visit yesterday by lunching privately with Prime Minister Clement Attlee at Crequers, his official country residence.

The visit was so private that details about it were confined to the bare announcement that Miss Truman was accompanied by U. S. Ambassador Walter Gifford and Mrs. Gifford.

It didn't even say whether Margaret was able to get in that game of tennis that the spry 68-year-old Attlee had promised her.

Taft Sets 1953 U.S. Spending At $90 Billion

Washington (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) estimated yesterday that government spending will hit a $90,000,000,000 a-year clip in 1953, exactly twice this year's outlay.

If his estimate is correct, Taft said, "I doubt very much if we can restrain inflation."

The Republican leader urged that "we spread our spending and go a little slower" in meeting the announced goals for defense. He set $70,000,000,000 to $72,000,000,000 per year as "about the limit to what we can do" without destroying public morale and endangering the national economy.

Senator Benton (D-Conn.) predicted, meanwhile a $4,000,000,000 cash surplus in the Federal Treasury at the end of the present fiscal year closing June 30. This, along with a tax bill now being written in Congress, would increase government revenue sufficiently to cover a $70,000,000,000 budget for 1952, Benton estimated.

Manhunt For Duo Reaches France, Italy

London (AP)—The manhunt for two missing British diplomats appeared to be narrowing last night to France and Italy.

Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison faces Parliament on the disappearance today and the head of Britain's counter-espionage organization heads for Washington and talks with the FBI.

British Secret service agents, helped by local police, were still working frantically to pick up the trail of Donald MacLean, 38, and Guy Burgess, 40, which was lost in Rennes, France, two weeks ago.

Since then, the only hard clues have been three telegrams presumably sent on behalf of the missing men to their families the middle of last week. One, signed Guy, was sent from Rome to Burgess' mother. The other two were sent from Paris to MacLean's wife and mother.

Yesterday the Rome newspaper Il Tempo, which has close connections with the Italian police, said Burgess arrived "some days ago" in Florence, where he met an English diplomat. Then he spent a few hours in Rome, and left, "presumably for southern Italy."

"But he may have left the country," Il Tempo said, declining to disclose its source of information.

In Paris, British agents and police mingled with crowds on the sidewalks, in the cafes and in the nightclubs of Montmartre following reports that MacLean had been seen in the city. Another rumor came from Istanbul, which reported an unconfirmed Bucharest broadcast saying they had arrived in Prague.

DiSalle Forecasts End To Shortage

Philadelphia (AP)—An early end to the beef shortage and quick settlement of the meat price control problem was forecast yesterday by Michael V. DiSalle, price stabilizer.

DiSalle said in an interview he expected beef production to be "nearly normal" within a few weeks.

However, the chief of the Office of Price Stabilization said he believes there may be an attempt by beef producers to "call a strike as they did in 1946." He thinks such a move would meet with failure.

Thinks War Can't Go On For Years

Tokyo, Monday, (AP)—U. S. Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall said today "I cannot conceive of the Korean war going on for years."

However, Marshall said he did not expect any Chinese peace move soon.

"They have got themselves into a difficult situation," Marshall said at a news conference. "But they have the problem of 'face,' the importance of which is hard for us to understand."

Marshall said there was no doubt "the Chinese wanted to force us out of Korea."

But he said he did not know what the Chinese aim was now.

Marshall denied again that he had come to Korea or Japan to discuss peace plans or a cease-fire in Korea.

He also said that he had brought no new instructions to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Far Eastern commander.

The defense secretary said that while in Korea he had studied the Eighth Army's operations and the rotation of combat veterans.

Marshall said the Eighth Army had two main jobs: "To sustain itself" and "to repulse any attempt by the Chinese or North Korean Communists to enter South Korea."

Asked about military policy if a cease-fire were being discussed, Marshall said he doubted if there would be "any moderation of the Eighth Army's action."

Marshall said he would start the week back to the United States to meet with the U. N. supreme commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

Marshall insisted he did not bring to the Far East a new directive for the supreme commander. And in Washington, officials indicated that it still was in course of preparation by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and others. It now seems possible the directive, previously referred to in testimony before the Senate committees investigating the firing of General MacArthur, may have been held up until Marshall could bring back his personal findings.

Allied Nations Considering Another Public Peace Bid To Communists In Korea

Washington, (AP)—United Nations' governments fighting in Korea are once more considering a public peace bid to the Communists, it was learned yesterday.

While no decision has been made, it seems probable a statement on general terms for peace will be issued if there is reason to believe such action would enlarge the chances for a Korean settlement.

It probably would be along the lines of the proposed peace statement which the U. N. governments worked out for President Truman last March but which they shelved when Gen. Douglas MacArthur issued his own truce bid first.

It is understood that the United States and Britain, primarily on the initiative of Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Minister Herbert Morrison, are taking the lead in working out detailed terms and conditions for a Korean settlement.

Their study, subject to review by other interested governments, will provide a basis for a public statement and for actual conduct of negotiation with the Communists—should this become possible.

The basis of the whole project is the possibility of a truce along the 38th parallel, the old dividing line between North and South Korea. This basis would change if the battle area shifted greatly from mid-Korea but apparently diplomatic officials expect no such early change in the situation.

Smashing Of Red Defenses Doesn't Necessarily Mean Another Big Dash To North

Washington, (AP)—United Nations firepower may be shattering the core of the present Communist defense line, but this doesn't necessarily presage a bold, new dash far into North Korea.

Practical military reasons can be the controlling factors, entirely aside from discussions, negotiations and understandings that may be going on at high policy levels far removed from the battlefield.

Secretary of Defense Marshall spent the weekend back in Tokyo assessing what he had seen in a personal visit to the fighting front and had learned during a talk with the U. N. field commanders in a command post on the rain-swept, muddy battlefield. In Tokyo, Marshall held hours-long talks with the U. N. supreme commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

Marshall insisted he did not bring to the Far East a new directive for the supreme commander. And in Washington, officials indicated that it still was in course of preparation by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and others. Democrats Outnumber Republicans

Monroe county remains in the Democratic column—at least, insofar as voter registrations are concerned.

Figures just released by the County Election bureau for the July 24 Primary election show 9,737 voters enrolled as Democrats and 6,450 as Republicans.

Total number of voters registered in the county is 16,389, divided between 8,742 males and 7,643 females. This represents a decline of 529 voters from last year's 16,909 total.

Aside from those enrolled by the two major parties, there are 158 non-partisans, 37 independents, six Prohibitionists and one Progressive.

Boys To Kill Watersnakes For Prizes

Junior Sportsmen's club members are eligible for an exciting summer contest that can lead to a $10 or $5 prize. The Pocono Mountain Sportsmen's association announces these prizes in a watersnake killing contest which is open now to all junior club members.

Contest rules are simple. Watersnakes must be killed personally by the junior club member and must be taken to Jacob Kintz, jobber, at 8th and Monroe Sts., Stroudsburg. There the snakes will be recorded and boys will be able to see from time to time how they stand in the contest.

Closing date is Sept. 1, 1951.

Only members of the Junior Sportsmen's club of the Pocono Mountain Sportsmen's association are eligible in this contest. Senior members point out that the killing of watersnakes is in line with good conservation policy, as many game fish are killed by these water predators.

Social Service Exchange To Convene Here

The Lehigh Valley Social Service exchange selected Stroudsburg as the place for its next meeting on September 14 following an annual meeting in Palmerton recently.

John R. Wilson, general secretary of the YMCA in Stroudsburg, sat with the board of directors for the first time. Mr. Wilson and Miss Mary Stevens, executive secretary of the Lehigh County Children's Aid, were elected as the result of mail balloting during May by the 78 member agencies of the Exchange.

Mrs. Harold Gumble, Pike county; Weston M. Helsey, Lehigh County; Dr. Charles Rominger and Mrs. F. E. Weinland, both of Northampton county, were re-elected as directors.

Dr. Rominger was elected president of the board of directors at the Palmerton meeting. The exchange is a central clearing agency through which member agencies clear problems dealing with people and communities they serve.

A budget of $7,066.07 was prepared for 1952. Various Community Chests in the service area covered by the agency will be asked to contribute to the operating fund.

Luncheon was served at the Blue Ridge Country club. Mrs. M. A. Powers, one of the Carbon county directors, made the luncheon arrangements. It was the first meeting of the exchange outside Bethlehem.

Only about 46 per cent of the U. S. wheat crop is processed for flour, the remainder being discarded in milling, shipped out, used for feed or otherwise disposed of.

Couple Escapes Death When Train Strikes Overturned Car

Freight Bumps Auto Lying Along Tracks

Thomas Murphy, 27, and his wife, Ethel, 29, of Staten Island, N. Y., who passed through the harrowing experience of lying helpless in their automobile as a locomotive and 20 freight cars moved by, bumping the machine, survived and were in "good" condition at the Monroe County General hospital, East Stroudsburg, last night.

The accident happened about 11:30 Saturday night at the Point of the Gap, as the couple were driving in their light weight sedan on Route 611 on their way to Scranton, they told Fred Decker, chief of police at Delaware Water Gap. Sgt. Harold D. Larson, of the Lackawanna railroad police, assisted Chief Decker in the investigation.

The police said Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were approaching the Point of the Gap when the former who was at the wheel was blinded by a bright light, apparently from an automobile moving in the opposite direction. Murphy said he applied the brakes and pulled to the right of the highway. The car went into a spin, ran over the bank and landed on the left side, the front end almost on the east-bound tracks of the Lackawanna railroad.

Right after the accident, an east-bound freight made up of 77 cars came along, police said. Evan Lewis, of Scranton, the engineer, noted the motor vehicle lying alongside the tracks and made every effort to bring the heavy train to a stop before reaching the car. The engine and 20 cars bumped the front of the machine, however, before the train could be brought to a halt, according to the police.

Engineer Lewis and Head Brake-man Thomas E. Berger, of Stroudsburg RD 2, rushed to the aid of the occupants of the car and assisted the Murphys out of the machine. They were placed in the automobile of Bruce Cola-bauch, of Columbia RD., who removed them to the hospital. J. H. Decker, of Scranton, was the conductor of the train.

Jesse Felker, Portland and Mt. Bethel police officer, went to the scene when he received a report of the accident, but being outside his territory, he was not required to investigate. He assisted in directing traffic for a time.

Mr. Murphy was reported to have escaped with multiple injuries, including his head, extent of which had not been fully determined last night, but his condition was reported as "good." Mrs. Murphy suffered minor injuries. It was reported at the hospital. Her condition was also said to have been "good" last night.

The light weight sedan was badly mangled, the entire front end being demolished. Damage was placed at $500.

Driver Faces Charge After 2-Car Crash

Long Pond—Two vehicles were in collision on Route 115 in the Long Pond area at 8:45 Sunday morning. Both machines were damaged and the operator of one of the cars was arrested for illegally overtaking another machine.

John Hubinger, a 21-year-old student, of Glen Summit, Mountain top, Pa., was operating a 1951 sedan belonging to Globe Coal Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, when he ran into the rear of a 1951 light sedan driven by William T. Omolaitis, 41, of Wilkes-Barre, State police of the Brodheadsville barracks, reported.

Hubinger attempted to pass the Wilkes-Barre man's machine when the right front fender of the former locked with the left rear fender of the latter. Omolaitis' car went out of control and ran into a guard fence.

The front fender, headlight and grille of the Hubinger machine and all four fenders, grille and front bumper of Omolaitis' machine were damaged to the extent of $350. Both were able to operate under their own power after the crash. No one was injured.

Hubinger was arrested by State police and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Isaac Dyson, this place. He was charged with illegal passing and posted a $13.50 bond for his appearance for a hearing at a later date.

Skidding Car Upsets; Four Persons Hurt

A heavy 1941 sedan went out of control on the slippery pavement on Route 209, a mile west of Stroudsburg, at 7:30 a.m. Sunday. The four occupants were injured, two of whom were hospitalized.

State police of the Stroudsburg sub-station report that Mrs. Marie Schneltzer, 45, of Hicksville, N. Y., was driving the car in which her three children were passengers. According to the police, the machine went into a skid and moved to the left of the highway, catapulted over an embankment and turned completely over. The machine was extensively damaged to the extent of $750, the police estimated. The car was towed to a Stroudsburg garage.

Mrs. Schneltzer suffer possible fractured ribs and right shoulder and her daughter, Marianne, 15, lacerated scalp, possible fracture of right wrist, right ribs and bruised back. Both were removed to General hospital and reported in "fair" condition last night.

Two other children, Thomas, 10, had lacerations of the scalp and left leg and Linden Joyce, eight, possible fracture of the left hand. Both were treated at the hospital and discharged.

Bangor High School Holds Baccalaureate

Bangor — The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of 114 members of the Bangor High school was held at the High school auditorium last night instead of the Lutheran Grove of Trinity Lutheran church as originally intended, due to the inclement weather.

Rev. L. C. Updegrave, pastor of the Reading Park United Evangelical church, formerly of this place, was the guest speaker. Dwelling on the subject, "Why Live," the speaker said man had gained control over nature, but not over human nature and never will. Therefore the purpose of living is to help others and continue in our struggle for a livelihood. He also pronounced the benediction.

Rev. Dr. J. Frederick Stoltz gave the invocation and read the Scripture lesson. The girls' ensemble, of the High school, under the direction of Robert Cathcart, director of music, was heard in three selections.

The ushers were: Lorraine Viglione, Florence Schoonover, Sallie Stinson, Shirley Roberts, Helen Fox, Beverly Biggle, Nancy Muffley, Elsie Reisen, Margaret Caponigro and Camille Falcone.

Engineers To Start Airport Survey Today

Mount Pocono—Representatives of the Michael Baker engineering firm of Rochester, Pa., arrived here late yesterday and will start work this morning on surveying the Mount Pocono airport in connection with a series of improvements contemplated by the Airport authority.

The projects will include lengthening and grading of the north-east-southwest runway to 4,000 feet to accommodate large-type planes. Jack Davis, operator-manager of the airport, reported last night that several multi-motor planes have landed at the field recently.

On Saturday, a party headed by George M. Brewster, prominent New Jersey contractor, flew here in a DC-3, airline-type transport. They proceeded by automobile to Mr. Brewster's estate in Pike county to spend the week-end. The big plane is expected to return the group to Teterboro, N. J., airport today.

Mr. Brewster's contracting firm built sections of the Lackawanna trail between Stroudsburg and Daleville, the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre airport at Avoca and a number of other large construction projects.

Miss Hazel Bush Is Bride Of Stanley A. Woolbert

Pale pink and white was the wedding of Miss Hazel Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Bush, of East Stroudsburg RD 3, who at 2:30 Saturday afternoon became the bride of Stanley Allen Woolbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Woolbert, of 177 Elizabeth St., East Stroudsburg.

Rev. Harold C. Eaton performed the ceremony before the candle-lit altar of the church where bouquets of white pompons and peonies had been placed. Other bouquets of mock oranges and other spring flowers were scattered through the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace gown over slipper satin with its illusion yoke rimmed with a wide ruffle of accordin pleated nylon. The sleeves were long and ended in points over the wrists while the full skirt had a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses tinged with pink.

Mrs. Robert Sebring was her sister's matron-of-honor and wore a dress of aqua lace with a white collar and full skirt with a matching lace headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink roses.

Henry F. Peters was best man and Gilbert Arnt and Calvin C. Bush served as ushers.

Ernest Michelfelder, organist, played for the ceremony.

Both the mother of the bride and of the bridegroom wore dresses of navy sheer with white accessories and corsages of white roses.

The reception for more than 200 guests was held in the social rooms of the church which had been decorated entirely with pale pink roses. There were two three-tier wedding cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolbert are now on a wedding trip through the New England states and to Niagara Falls. For traveling the bride wore a light brown sheer dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

On their return, they will make their home for the present on Elizabeth St. They were both graduated from East Stroudsburg High school in the class of 1948. Mrs. Woolbert is a book keeper at the East Stroudsburg National bank. Mr. Woolbert is a senior at Lafayette College in Easton.

Bartonsville 4-H To Study Cooking Project

Bartonsville—The first meeting of the 4-H club of Bartonsville was held last week at the home of Mrs. Donald Hartman when they decided to take up cooking as their project for the summer.

Refreshments were served after the meeting. Present were the leaders, Mrs. Russell Bond, Mrs. Donald Hartman and Miss Margaret MacLaren, and the following members:

Beverly Bond, Linda Kresge, Joan Spragle, Beverly Hartman, Elizabeth Frailey, Lois Strand, Linda Strand, Nancy Canfield, Joyce Riday, Donna Lee Hartman.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, June 13, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Hartman.

When you're having guests for dinner it's a good idea to plan the shopping list carefully well in advance and then do your shopping the day before the dinner.

Open House Is Held For Jr. Women

Members of the Junior Woman's Club yesterday found a bright spot in a dull Sunday afternoon at the home of their president, Mrs. James Cummings, 515 North Fifth St., Stroudsburg, who held open house as the final spring activity for the group.

Purpose of the open house was to provide an informal opportunity to get acquainted with members outside of the formal club meetings. The candlelit tea table with its cakes and sandwiches and sugared strawberries and pineapple formed the focal point for groups of guests.

Mrs. Richard Fredenberg and Mrs. George Stabenow poured while Mrs. James Morgan, Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mrs. William Cummins, and Mrs. Samuel C. Wells III assisted Mrs. Cummings as hostesses.

Next activity of the club will be an early autumn fashion show.

Children Lead Program At Local Church

A full church yesterday marked the annual Children's Day program of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian church school which took the place of the regular morning service.

Opened with an invocation by the pastor, Rev. Ernest T. Campbell, the program featured programs by all the younger departments. Horace R. Westbrook, superintendent, welcomed the group to the assembly of all the Sunday school, one of the four occasions during the year when they meet together, and paid tribute to the teachers and officers.

The youth choir under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farmer gave the opening anthem "This Is My Father's World" with Nancy and Peter Westbrook singing a duet.

Members of the Geneva Fellowship led the devotions with Guy Dean III giving the Scripture lesson and Miss Ann Chandler the prayer.

The sacrament of infant baptism was administered by the pastor to John Michael Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Farmer; and to Thomas Carey Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Palmer.

Mrs. Elton Dening, superintendent of the Cradle roll, read the names of its members, and showed a bulletin board of pictures to be hung in the church school.

The nursery department directed by Mrs. Ralph Bender, sang a song; and the Beginner's department of which Mrs. Jonas T. May is superintendent sang a number of songs, and presented a birthday song for one of their members, Dutch Grimm.

A mixed quartet from the senior Westminster Fellowship sang two songs under the direction of Mrs. Leo Dornbos, and members of the senior department served as ushers.

A sermonette by the pastor was followed by a program of songs and Bible memory work by the primary department with Mrs. Roger Acker in charge. Dorothy May read the Scripture story for a pantomime junior department of which Mrs. Edward Hess is superintendent.

The intermediate department was represented by a group of 8 girls in a floral exercise directed by Mrs. Jose Piza.

Mrs. Robert Wolbert served as organist for the service.

Rae O'Harra Is Married To Robert T. Shields Here

The East Stroudsburg Methodist church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Rae O'Harra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Card O'Harra, of East Stroudsburg, to Robert T. Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields, of Honolulu, Terr. of Hawaii, at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 9.

Rev. Harold C. Eaton performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white nylon net with a white picture hat, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

They were attended by the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom from Syracuse, N. Y. The maid of honor wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories, and her flowers were formed into a lei of orchid petals.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, before Mr. and Mrs. Shields left for a wedding trip through New England. The bride wore a green and white dress for traveling with white accessories.

They will make their home at Springfield, Mass., where Mr. Shields is studying for his master's degree at Springfield College. The bride was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and attended East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Mr. Shields was graduated from a Philadelphia High school and from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

Reports were given on the recent bake sale, which was an outstanding success financially. Plans were discussed for the Firemen's Carnival to be held June 30 to July 7 on the grounds back of the firehouse. The ladies will hold a bake sale in connection therewith on June 30, July 3, and July 7, with Cora Sebring in charge. Donations will be most acceptable.

Harriet Smith will be in charge of the fish pond, and she will appreciate donations of 10c articles suitable for children for this feature. Katherine Kabalac will be in charge of the fancy work table and is soliciting articles for it.

Ruth Larn will have the White Elephant sale and is soliciting 10c articles suitable for children and 25c articles suitable for adults, to be wrapped and designated as to one of these two classes.

At the next meeting of the Auxiliary on June 21, donations for the various tables may be brought to be held in readiness for the affair.

Fred Bush Is Honored On Retirement

Tribute of a grateful community was given last week to Fred S. Bush, a graduate of Monroe county schools, on his retirement after 41 years of service to the schools of Bloomfield, N. J.

Mr. Bush, a brother of A. Roe Bush and Harold N. Bush, of the Stroudsburgs, was graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and the old East Stroudsburg Normal school. He was principal of the schools in Pleasantville when he came to Bloomfield in 1910. He has been principal of Fairview since 1913.

The community designated June 4 as the day in which school and community leaders paid high tribute to the educator. Every room in the school was decorated in his honor, and graduates of years back joined today's students in honoring him. A buffet supper, and a reception at night climaxed the biggest celebration in the history of the Bloomfield schools.

He was presented with many gifts from the various groups he has served during the years. Mr. Bush makes his home at 145 Washington St., in Bloomfield.

Jr. Crusaders Have Meeting At Parish House

Bartonsville—The May meeting of the Junior Crusader group of St. John's Lutheran, Sunday school was held at the parish house on May 30, with Robert Field presiding. A financial report was given by Robert Cyphers and Marian Butts served as recording secretary in the absence of Walter Getz. Alyse Arndt read the scripture lesson.

Miss Geraldine Jasmer, Bible club teacher presented flano-graph study about Jeroboam after which group singing was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by the hosts Robert and Leroy Cyphers.

Those present for the meeting were Grace Labadie, Alyse Arnt, Marian Butts, Jack Elber, Teddy Elber, Billy Thels, Johnny Field, Bobby Cyphers, Bobby Field, Ronald Swink, Tommy Field, Leroy Cyphers, Miss Geraldine Jasmer, Bible club teacher, Mrs. Beatrice Swink and Mrs. Robert Field, Crusader representatives, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cyphers.

Officers Elected By Saylorburg 4-H Club

Saylorburg—Officers were elected at the first meeting of the Saylorburg 4-H club held on Thursday, June 7, at the firehall. There were nine members present and the club leaders: Mrs. Elva Knowles and Miss Margaret MacLaren.

Della Seifass was elected president; Gladys Hoffman, vice president; Carolyn Frable, treasurer and Nancy Heller, secretary. Mary George and Devonne Schmick will be game leaders; Joyce Heller and Charlotte Neal, song leaders; and Gail Schaffer, news reporter.

They selected outdoor cooking as their project for the summer and will hold the next meeting on June 15 at the fire hall.

Bible School Begins Today

The first session of this year's Stroudsburg Vacation Bible School gets under way this morning at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. The school will run for two weeks with sessions being held each weekday morning from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Not mentioned in a previous news release is the fact that Mrs. Robert Wilson will be serving in the Junior Department. Mrs. Howard Alles of Mount Pocono is the superintendent of the Primary group. Mrs. Emil Weber will be working under Mrs. John Heller in the Beginners Department.

Parents are urged to take advantage of this school so that their children may get a firmer grasp of the scriptures.

ITU Aux. Dinner

The International Typographical Union auxiliary will hold a dinner meeting at the Fernwood on Tuesday, June 12. All members are asked to meet at the CLU club at 6:30 p. m.

Everett-Staples Wedding Held At Baptist Church

Eleanor H. Staples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andres, of East Stroudsburg RD 2, became the bride of Russell H. Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Everett, of North Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the East Stroudsburg Baptist church.

Rev. Norman Savage performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a yellow organdy street-length dress with a long-sleeved bolero jacket, and a matching hat of yellow organdy, and white accessories. She carried a white Bible with a marker of white roses.

Mrs. Helen Staples, sister-in-law of the bride, was her matron of honor, and wore an orchid organdy dress with white accessories and an orchid and white hat and a corsage of white roses. Richard Everett served as his brother's best man.

The bride's mother wore light blue organdy dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses, while the bridegroom's mother wore an aqua taffeta dress trimmed with nailheads, and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for the immediate families was held at the Green Lantern tea room, which featured fresh flowers on the tables and a three-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

A reception for about 75 relatives and friends was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett are now on a tour of the southern states. For traveling the bride chose a navy blue rayon suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will make their home on North Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

The bride is a graduate of East Stroudsburg High school and is employed at the Art Metal Works, Inc. Mr. Everett was also graduated from East Stroudsburg High school and is a veteran of World War II, having served two years in the US Navy. He is associated with his father in the coal trucking business.

Women Workers Plan Closing Outing June 13

Tannersville—The women workers of St. Paul's Lutheran church met on Wednesday to quilt and discuss plans for the annual bazaar. Mrs. Cora Sebring accepted the chairmanship for this project and it was decided to hold the bazaar with supper at the firehouse on Friday, August 3.

The last meeting of this group for the season will be next Wednesday, when they will finish a quilt on which they have been working for Clair Hardenstine and will wind up the group activities with a special outing. They will resume activities next fall.

Gives True And Lasting Brilliance

Mike Carlton tells everyone about the part Car-Skin Reconditioner plays in true auto brilliance. He calls it the fastest safe auto cleaner ever made.

True automobile brilliance is not wax! Brilliance is reflected light—nothing more... nothing less! For instance a beautiful diamond will not shine or sparkle in a dark cellar, but when exposed to light it shines and sparkles like dancing sunbeams. Now cover the diamond with a dark and dingy film and then expose it to light again.
What happens? It won't shine.
Why? Because the dark dingy film prevents the light from striking the clear diamond surface. Hence no reflection... therefore... no sparkle... no brilliance.

Now it's the same with an automobile as it is with a diamond...
Unless the car surface is first made bright and clear—free of all oxidation and dingy film—a thousand pounds or quarts of wax will not give it true lasting brilliance;
for the reason that wax coatings are transparent—therefore, light passes through the wax and will strike dull uncleaned car surfaces—hence no reflection—therefore, no sparkle—no brilliance.

NOTE: All good brands of auto wax (and new silicone coatings) protect and enhance the brilliance of a car, but unless the surface is first made clear and bright, there can be no true lasting brilliance. Brilliance is reflected light.
It cannot be purchased in a can—it must be created.

Car-Skin reconditioner plays an outstanding part in true auto brilliance:

A. It is made to do one thing only—remove the cause of dullness and therefore make reflection possible (true brilliance).

B. It is formulated on the principle of dissolving oxidation, old wax and polish, tree sap, bird marks, bugs, stains, etc., instead of depending on hard rubbing, harsh abrasive action for such removal.

C. It contains a special dry cleaning fluid (first mentioned) in

Alignment Of Front Wheels Guarantees Safer Driving

Just what is the reason for having your front wheels aligned?
R. D. Coss, your Bear alignment man in Bartonsville, has these few tips to motorists.

First, one step in the operation is to take off the front wheels and place the wheels and tires on an electric balancing machine and balance up the tire on the wheel. This method of balancing is done by placing little lead slugs on the rim of the wheel to counter heavy and light sides of the tire. After the wheel is truly balanced, the wheel will rotate freely and evenly.

The main purpose of wheel alignment is to make all four wheels roll along without scuffing, and to give easy steering through intersected angles. Correct wheel alignment is important because it means increased tire mileage.

Remember, this service is available through your favorite garage or Mr. Coss personally.

Why not drive out to the Coss wheel alignment service, on Route 611 in Bartonsville, just 500 yards above the intersection and have
Mr. Coss check your car for safer driving throughout the year.

London Paper Speculates On 'Retirement' Of King

London, (AP)—London's mass circulation Sunday Pictorial speculated yesterday that King George VI may "retire" from the throne because of his health.

The 55-year-old monarch has been confined to Buckingham palace for the last two weeks as a result of a "small slight form of pneumonia," medical experts explained. In addition, he has been suffering since 1948 from an ailment which blocks circulation of the blood. In his case it affects the right leg.

Diplomatic sources close to the court have commented recently that the King was looking much older, seemingly strained and tired. This could be due to the onerous round of public duties he has insisted on performing. But it could also indicate a general deterioration of his health.

Several newspapers have commented recently about the monarch's physical condition and appearance, urging that he be given a chance for rest and quiet. But the Pictorial article was the first to suggest that the King might give up his strenuous job.

And even the Pictorial did not mention the word "abdication" it said.

"The King's health is now prompting the question—will he retire into private life and pass the reins of sovereignty to his daughter, Princess Elizabeth?"

There was some speculation over the Pictorial's avoidance of the word abdication. This may have been because it has unpleasant overtones to British ears since Edward VIII gave up the throne to marry.

The King's advisers have suggested the Princess and her husband, Prince Philip, take over more of her father's official duties so that he might have a better chance of getting the rest he needs.

The Pictorial, in closing, said that almost all Britons apparently feel about their King:

"It would be a saddening thing to see a much-loved King step down from his throne. But it would be callous, indeed, to demand that he should sacrifice himself on the altar of duty. For we all know that this man has not spared himself—and would not—in the service of his people."

"But the answer to this question rests with his Majesty alone. And no matter what his decision may be, he must know that he has always the esteem and affection of his people; that he has made the monarchy an even more enduring institution than it was when he came to it."

Sciotia, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Knowles, Mrs. Effie Knowles, were callers of the Herbert Knowles family.

Buddy Hayden, Stroudsburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mackes and son.

Sabre Jet Crash Kills USAF Pilot

New Castle, (AP)—The crash of an Air Force F-84 Sabre jet airplane at Hillsville, eight miles west of New Castle, killed the pilot yesterday.

State police said the plane burst into flames after the crash. The name of the pilot was being withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Somerset, (AP)—A Navy fighter pilot was back at his Norfolk, Va., post yesterday after a brief stay in the Somerset Community hospital following the crash landing of his plane near here on a trip from Norfolk to Pittsburgh.

The flier is Lt. Paul A. Vores of near Pittsburgh. He was en route home on a cross-country proficiency flight when his engine failed near Wellersburg. He brought the plane down in rugged hill country near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border but suffered only cuts and bruises in the crash landing Friday night.

Catholic State In Indochina Loses Army

Hanoi, Indochina, (AP)—Msr. Li Huu Tu, the world's only Catholic bishop with a standing army of fighting men, has just lost them to French command.

The bishop is the ruler of a small (about 1,000 square miles) ecclesiastical state, Phat Diem, a small area some 60 miles south of Hanoi which includes a population of about two million persons.

Until last week, no French troops had set foot in Phat Diem for two years, except for a small French liaison mission. But an attack by the Communist-led rebels of the Vietminh changed all that.

The Vietminh sought to enter the rich rice-bearing delta of the Red and Day rivers by an attack through the Catholic autonomous region, apparently on the theory that this was the weakest link in the chain of defenses around the rice paddies.

Three regiments of Vietminh rebels broke through on a front of about 12 miles, capturing about a dozen posts manned by Li Huu Tu's forces.

This forced the French command to act, and Gen. Gonzales de Linieres, local French commander, took over the control of the bishop's 5,000-man fighting force. The general is French commissioner for Tonkin as well as commander in chief of the French forces there. Said he:

Fine Disavows Sponsoring Proposed Mercantile Tax As Solution To Deadlock

Harrisburg, (AP)—Pennsylvania's budget-tax deadlock took on a lighter outlook last night with a disavowal by Gov. John S. Fine of a proposed retail mercantile tax as a solution to it.

The idea of substituting a one per cent mercantile levy for the Governor's one-half of one per cent State income tax was advanced last week in the Republican Senate.

Fine, however, promptly denied he had anything to do with the idea but said he would give a mercantile tax "serious consideration" if the Legislature adopted it.

"I want to make it crystal clear that I am not sponsoring or advocating a mercantile tax," the Governor said in a weekend statement. "If the Legislature places such a tax before me, I will, of course, be compelled to give it serious consideration."

Fine, staunchly supporting his proposed income tax as "the fairest and least burdensome tax," described a mercantile levy as "at best a thin disguise and a poor substitute for the sales tax which many of the opponents of the income tax actually advocate."

The income tax bill, designed to raise $119,000,000 in the present biennium, passed the House with difficulty but has been bottled up for weeks in the Senate Finance committee. The measure was sent back to committee, when eleven Republican senators—sufficient to defeat it on a roll call—refused to support it.

The tax-budget situation may come to a head Friday at a caucus of Republican senators with fiscal officers of the administrative branch.

Democrats and some Republican senators contended the State's budget problems may be solved without additional taxes by reducing appropriations and increasing the figure of estimated revenues. Fine, however, insists that new

Berle's Television Marathon Raises More Than $1 Million For Runyon Cancer Fund

New York, (AP)—Voice-weary and sleepy-eyed, Comedian Milton Berle headed for bed yesterday after his 22-hour television marathon that raised $1,127,211 in pledges for the Damon Runyon cancer fund.

The National Broadcasting Co., which carried the program over a 41-station network, said pledges still were pouring in and that an exact total would not be available for some time.

Berle, who personally handled telephones on his third annual stint for the benefit of the cancer fund, said as the show ended:

"I'm very, very tired but very, very happy."

The comedian lost nine pounds performing under the hot lights. Posing for photographers after it was over, Berle yawned broadly in one "shot" and commented, "You think I'm kidding with this yawning?"

Asked about his plans after the show, he replied, "Sleep—just sleep."

Berle appeared almost constantly before the TV camera from noon Saturday to 10 a.m. yesterday. The cancer fund was organized in memory of Damon Runyon, author and newspaperman who died of the disease four years ago.

Aided by scores of show business personalities during the first 20 hours, "Mr. Television" went it alone the last 120 minutes. At his desk was a battery of 10 telephones. Behind him sat nine pretty girls also taking calls—a program window-dressing for more than 1,000 volunteer phone operators who worked in shifts throughout the day and night to record pledges.

Spectators drifted in and out of the big studio at all hours during the telecast. About 100 were in the audience as the show ended.

The largest pledge came from Louis B. Mayer of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film studios—$25,000.

The second largest, $15,000, came from the Buffalo, N.Y., Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A few minutes before the show ended, a 10-year-old girl telephoned a pledge of $2—to come out of her piggy bank.

The program was telecast throughout the East, as far south as Jacksonville, Fla., and west to Omaha, Neb. The broadcasting company said more than $900,000 in pledges came from the New York metropolitan area.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Rain and wet grounds raised havoc with the local sports picture yesterday, further entangling the situation, at least as far as baseball is concerned. There were no games in the Blue Mountain or Pocono Mountain Leagues and there was no action on the Delaware Valley and Pocono Sunrise Speedways, as for the second time this season the Sunday athletic schedule was washed completely off the books. Recent postponements are making it difficult to reschedule games in the Blue Mountain circuit and much of this task will have to be handled at the regular monthly meeting, a week from tonight.

Pocono A. C. is one of the few clubs in the circuit with only one game to make up at this time. Stockertown has several contests to squeeze in to the regular schedule and it may be some time before the two foes will be able to play the contest originally listed for yesterday. It was the second home game of the campaign to be rained out for Pocono A. C. this season, but the first contest, with Johnsonville, was made up during the same week that it was postponed.

Thursday's scheduled game between Pocono A. C. and Roseto, at Gordon Giffels field, has been moved up to Tuesday, at 6:15 p.m. The reason for the switch in dates is the fact that the King Brothers' circus will be in town and that there will also be a Flag Day parade. First place will be at stake when these two foes clash, and all concerned want to draw the largest crowd possible. If the weatherman cooperates, this contest should attract the largest paid attendance by far this season, as the two arch rivals square off for the most important battle of the campaign.

Tonight's meeting of the officers and team captains of the Monroe County Softball League may be the most important business session in the history of the league. The group is passing up its regular Monday action to meet at the Monroe County YMCA, to iron out difficulties arising over fields and umpiring. There's no doubt about it that the circuit is in grave danger of collapsing if these two bits of trouble can't be overcome in the very near future. There are other items on tonight's agenda, but these are much less important than the field and umpiring troubles.

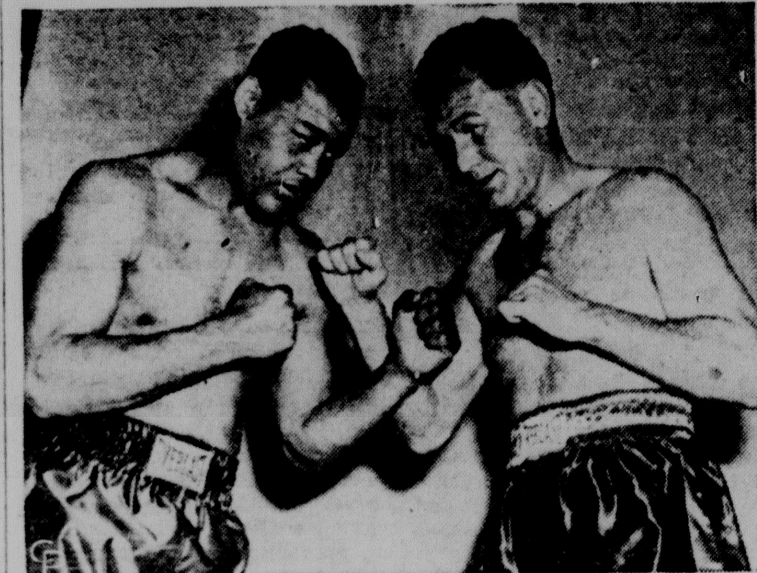

Stroudsburg's Little League is also slated for a business meeting after tonight's game. The number one topic on the agenda in this case is also umpires, a division of the great game that has been causing the circuit plenty of trouble this season. It appears as if an agreement for the supplying of umpires, made before the campaign got underway, has completely collapsed. The umpiring situation has been bad for the past few games and at the present time there doesn't seem to be any improvement in the making. The circuit has decided to call a meeting and see what can be done about the problem, before it's too late.

Danny Ring, Oil City right hander, hurled an 8-3 victory over New Castle in the second half of a Middle Atlantic League doubleheader yesterday. Ring formerly pitched with Mahanoy City, North Atlantic League, and also hurled a portion of the 1947 campaign with the Stroudsburg Poconos, under his proper name, Dan Wangrenovich. Ring was at one time the property of the New York Yankees. Stan Pawloski, third baseman with Cedar Rapids, Ia., is leading the Three I League in hitting, according to a late report. Pawloski, the property of the Cleveland Indians, held down the third base post with the Poconos in 1949. Billy Joe Davidson, pitcher for whom the Indians are reported to have paid a $150,000 bonus, is reportedly on his way to this same Cedar Rapids club for the remainder of the campaign.

Doug Schoonover will hold a baseball school at Gordon Giffels field on Thursday, for boys between 13 and 15 years of age. Times for the event will be announced on Wednesday. The school will be the first step in forming a league for boys of this age group interested in baseball. Schoonover at the present time is busily digging up funds and equipment for the circuit that will give those too old for Little League play and too young for the American Legion team a chance to play baseball during the summer months.

George Macriocostas, the Golden Terror, rivals in the main event of the most recent wrestling show held at East Stroudsburg High school, under the sponsorship of the Lions Club of the Stroudsburgs will be on the mat card at the Allentown Fair grounds tonight. However, they won't be meeting each other this time.

Rain Washes Out Entire Schedule In Two Circuits

Louis' Clash With Savold To Highlight Week's Ring Agenda

New York, (AP)—Joe Louis will attempt to clear the last obstacle on the way to a heavyweight championship shot when he takes on Lee Savold, the British and Spanish recognized heavyweight king at the Polo Grounds Wednesday night.

The 37-year-old Brown Bomber and the 35-year-old Englewood, N. J., blond are scheduled to go 15 rounds. The chances are that the old warhorses won't have to go more than six or so.

Louis says he won't need more than six rounds to flatten the reformed playboy. Savold predicts he'll do the flattening.

Louis, who has won five fights since his loss to Ezzard Charles, is favored at 12 to 5.

A crowd of around 15,000 may pay about $100,000 to see the battle of the aged. The 9 p. m. (EDT) bout will not be televised or broadcast. Selected theaters in Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Baltimore and Albany, N. Y., will get a telecast of the bout over a closed circuit. The general public, however, will be out of luck.

There won't be any Friday radio-televised show, either. The regular Madison Square boxing season is over. There won't be any more weekly shows until September.

The British and European boxing bodies, who refuse to recognize Kid Gavilan as world welterweight champion, will have a couple of their own contenders battle it out in Portawell, Wales, Wednesday night. Eddie Thomas, the Welshman who holds the British and European welter titles, defends his European diadem against

Bosox Take Two From Indians To Gain Hold On Third Place

Cleveland, (AP)—Boston's Red Sox regained undisputed possession of third place yesterday by twice defeating the Cleveland Indians, 9-6 and 8-2. Ray Boone, Cleveland shortstop, made four errors, two in the first game accounting for five unearned runs.

Tigers Sweep Doubleheader From Athletics

Detroit, (AP)—Dick Kryhoski, Vic Wertz and Pat Mullins supplied the home runs and Freddie Hutchinson and Bob Cain the pitching as the Detroit Tigers swept a doubleheader for the first time this year, whipping the Philadelphia Athletics 11-7 and 9-5 yesterday.

A six-run outburst in the third inning of the final game sparked the Tigers to the seventh win in their last eight contests. Kryhoski's second homer of the day came during the uprising.

Wertz, Mullin and Kryhoski homered in the first game.

The Tigers came from behind with three runs in the sixth inning. Ferris Fain and Gus Zernial homered earlier for the Athletics.

Detroit scored its last five runs on four walks, an error by second baseman Pete Suder and only two hits—a single and home run by Wertz.

In the second game the Tigers scored six runs in the third on two walks, three singles and two doubles. Aaron Robinson drove in three of the runs with a bases loaded double.

First Game
Philadelphia .062 401 000—7 10 3
Detroit .021 123 028—11 11 1

Cubs Stop Maglie While Dividing With Giants

New York, (AP)—The Chicago Cubs smashed Sal Maglie's nine-game winning streak yesterday, knocking the rightshander out of the box early to win the second game of a doubleheader, 7-3, after the New York Giants had won the opener, 6-1. Bob Rush spaced ten hits for his fourth victory in the nightcap. Larry Jansen, aided by four homers, gained his sixth triumph for New York in the opener.

Home runs by Don Mueller, Wes Westrum, Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky eased the way for Jansen in the first. Each of the four clubs came with none on. The Cubs got their lone run in

Homer Gives Pirates Split With Dodgers

Brooklyn, (AP)—Ralph Kiner hammered his fifteenth home run, his second of the game, with Pete Reiser on base in the top of the eleventh inning yesterday to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 5-4 victory and a split in their doubleheader with Brooklyn. Ralph Branca won his fifth game besting Bob Friend in a pitching duel as the Dodgers won the opener, 2-1.

Kiner's belt against the wind into the stands in left center came after Reiser had worked Carl Erskine, the third Brooklyn pitcher, for a walk after one out. Brooklyn tallied one run in its half on a double by Roy Campanella and two infield outs.

Early Homers
Kiner and Gus Bell hit early homers off Clarence Podbielan, making his first start. Bell drove in the home run king with a single in the sixth to give the Bucs' young Paul La Palme a 3-0 lead.

"Duke" Snider's two-run homer, his thirteenth, in the seventh and Carl Furillo's round tripper tied the score in the eighth. That brought in Willie Werle who finished to win his third game.

Furillo was the hitting star of Ralph Branca's fourth straight one-run victory in the first game, accounting for three of the five hits off Friend. Branca gave up six, but hurled shutout ball after a double by "Hank" Schenz and a single by George Metkovich scored the lone Pittsburgh run with none out in the first.

A double by Furillo and a single by Campanella tied the score in the second. Furillo's single scored Jackie Robinson who had doubled, with what proved to be the winning run in the fourth.

First Game
Pittsburgh .100 000 000—1 6 1
Brooklyn .010 100 000—2 5 0

Second Game
Pittsburgh .010 100 002—5 9 2

Cards Edge Braves, 5-4

Boston, (AP)—Unbeaten lefty Harry Brecheen survived a ninth inning rally to gain his fourth win for the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday with a 5-4 decision over the Boston Braves. The latter packed the bases in the finale but Brecheen pulled out by forcing pinch hitter Bob Addies to loft an infield pop.

Brecheen gave up nine hits, including Ray Mueller's first homer of the season that came in the seventh inning with Sid Gordon and Earl Torgeson aboard.

Musial Shines
Sparked by Stan Musial, who tripled and singled twice, the Cards banged out 13 hits, all but one against starter Warren Spahn, who ran into a three-run uprising at the outset.

In addition to the Musial triple, the initial St. Louis outburst included singles by Red Schoendienst and Del Rice, an error by shortstop "Buddy" Kerr and two wild heaves by Spahn.

The Cards clinched matters in the seventh by scoring twice on four singles. Nippy Jones' fly drove in Schoendienst with the deciding run.

Little League Contest

Stroudsburg Security Trust and First Stroudsburg National Bank clash in tonight's Stroudsburg Little League game, at Stroudsburg Playground. The contest is slated to get underway at 6:30.

The league will hold a meeting at the Monroe County YMCA immediately after the game.

No Racing Yesterday

Rain and wet tracks postponed stock car races at both Blakeslee's Pocono Sunrise Speedway and the Delaware Valley Speedway, near the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg airport, yesterday. However, both tracks will return to action next Sunday.

No Softball Tonight

There will be no games in the Monroe County Softball League tonight, but instead league officers and team captains will hold an important business meeting at the Monroe County YMCA. The meeting is scheduled for 7.

First Game
Chicago .100 000 000—1 6 3
New York .000 210 038—6 9 1

Shawnee To Feature Major Golf Tourneys

Shawnee-On-Delaware — Golf stars from many eastern states, including some famous names in the sports world, will participate in the twenty-eighth annual Shawnee Invitation Golf Tournament at the Shawnee Inn and Country Club here June 21, 22, 23 and 24.

Headed by Ed Meister, Cleveland, winner of the past two tournaments, a partial list of entries already received includes golfers from eight states as well as Bermuda and Canada.

Ev Helland, champion of Bermuda, was one of the first to accept an invitation to compete. Howard Everitt, former Pennsylvania amateur champion, is another entry.

Famous Names
Judge Albert Cooper, of Trenton, who represented this country in the Olympics on the 1928 soccer team and who later played professional basketball, and Howard Ehme, Philadelphia, one of the all-time great baseball pitchers who was a member of Connie Mack's last world's championship Athletics, also will be in the field. Judge Cooper, who stands six feet four inches, is a two handicap player; Ehme boasts a handicap of five.

According to head pro Harry Obitz this year's Shawnee Invitation will top 175 entries. The New York metropolitan district will be heavily represented as will the Philadelphia district. Upper New York, South Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and the New England states also will contribute large entries to the event.

The Invitation tournament is the first of a series of national events to be scheduled for the Pocono resort club this season. The Shawnees vs Delaware golf matches will be held the week of July 15-22; The Philadelphia District PGA will be held August 20-26, and the Waite and Old Masters tourneys, September 5-9.

A large field is also expected for tomorrow's Senatorial Sweepstakes, a golf tournament that will feature the celebration of Republican Day at this resort.

Browns, Senators Gain Even Break

St. Louis, (AP)—An eleventh inning homer by Gil Coan gave the Washington Senators a 3-2 verdict over the St. Louis Browns in the second game of a doubleheader yesterday before 8,927 fans. The Browns took the opener 10-9 with Ned Garver gaining his ninth victory although he yielded 18 hits.

The second game was a close battle all the way.

Scoring
Hank Arft, pinch hitting for the Browns, tied the score 2-2 with a homer off Johnson in the tenth. The Senators took the lead double and scored on a single by Cass Michaels. Singles by Irv Noren, Sam Mele and Sam Dente had tied the count in the ninth. A double by Ray Coleman and a single by Dale Long gave the Browns a first-inning run.

Yogi Berra's two-run double in the first inning and a homer in the third shoved the Yankees ahead 4-0 in the nightcap.

Singles by Jim Busby, who stole two bases in the game, pinchhitter Floyd Baker, Bob Dillinger and Minnie Minoso plus doubles by Phil Masi and Nellie Fox gave the White Sox five runs in the fifth.

Hits by Johnny Hopp, Gerry Coleman and pinch-batter Joe DiMaggio accounted for two more Yankee tallies in the sixth and sent them ahead 6-5.

Two Tallies
But the lead again was short-lived as the rambunctious Sox punched two runs in the sixth. One of them was forced in by a walk off Tommy Byrne with the bases full.

The Yanks tied it up in the seventh, 7-7, when Gene Woodling scored behind singles by Berra and Bobby Brown.

Then came the deluge. Four White Sox runs in the eighth off Joe Ostrowski and Fred Sanford were unearned. Pitcher Randy Gumpert's grounder went through Phil Rizzuto. Then followed a sacrifice by Fox, an intentional walk to Minoso, and successive hits by Eddie Robinson, Don Lenhardt and Busby.

The firecracker-shooting, paper-throwing crowd had little to scream about in the first contest. The Yankees bunched three of their six hits off Saul Rogovin in the fifth for one run with Mickey Mantle's blow scoring Jackie Jensen.

New York scored the clincher in the eighth when Eddie Lopat singled and eventually tallied on Woodling's long fly.

The Sox collected two hits for their only run in the sixth. Fox led off with a single past Ruzzuto. Minoso's hit to center put Fox on third and he came home as Coleman tossed out Lenhardt at first.

Wrestling Program At Allentown

Allentown — Don Eagle, the greatest grappler of them all, will be one of the main event principals when promoter Bert Bertolini inaugurates the allentown wrestling season at the Allentown Fairgrounds tonight.

Tough Foe
Providing the opposition for the National Wrestling Association champion will be the 268-pound Golden Terror, who figured in several sensational brawls here during the past indoor season.

This will be Don Eagle's first showing in this city and his debut is expected to attract what may prove to be the largest crowd ever to witness a grappling match here.

Lambert Sets New Course Mark On Mountain Manor Fairways

Marshall's Creek—Ray Lambert, golf professional at Mountain Manor, set a new course record here yesterday, with a blistering 27 on the par 36 nine-hole course. Playing 18 holes Lambert, former assistant pro at Glen Brook, shot a 60, touring the first nine in 33 and retracing his steps in six less strokes the next time around.

Former Low
The former low mark was held by John Kupiec, formerly of Stroudsburg, who shot a 28 previously.

Lambert played with Mike Riter and Don Hawk, both of Philadelphia and guests at Mountain Manor.

Riter shot a 42-44—86, while Hawk came up with rounds of 36-35, for a 71 total.

Roseto To Play Pocono A. C. Tomorrow

Rain washed out the entire baseball schedule in both the Blue Mountain and Pocono Mountain Leagues yesterday, as a total of nine contests were washed off the books by the rain which lasted far into the night. In all probability the postponed games in the Pocono Mountain League will be made up at the end of the season or as part of a doubleheader, but none of the Blue Mountain League teams could state last night when they would make up the rained-out battles.

Although none of the Blue Mountain League teams could tell when yesterday's games would be played, the circuit faces a full week of action on all fronts.

The top contest of the week will find Roseto A. A.

Chitwood's Daredevils In Program

In the motorcycle end of the show Don Forester, Langhorne Pa., and Gerry Allen, Memphis will do their stuff.

Second Money

Jim Ferrier, the former Australian now playing out of San Francisco, captured second money of $2,000 with a final round of 68 and a money score of plus 28.

Once during the day's miserable round, which was followed by only a scattered thousand spectators wrapped in rain coats, Ferrier pulled even with Roberto. That was at the eleventh hole. But from there on De Vicenzo pulled away and won without being pressed.

It provided a thrilling finish to the 90-hole event.

'Candida' To Star Olivia DeHavilland

Mountainhome — The sparkling and human play "Candida," by George Bernard Shaw, chosen as the opening vehicle of the Pocono Playhouse here on June 18, has been described as the best comedy written for the English speaking theater in the last 100 years.

"Candida" is Shaw's witty testament to love. It tells the story of a warmhearted and gracious lady whose tact and intelligence have contributed greatly to the success of her husband. When an adolescent poet falls in love with her, Candida's husband becomes alarmed and declares his wife must choose between him and the poet. Her decision is an exciting and interesting one with the man who needed her most winning out.

Hailed by many critics and audiences as the best play Shaw ever wrote, "Candida," has been successfully presented in three major revivals on Broadway in the last decade with Katherine Cornell, playing the part of the enchanting heroine in each engagement.

Olivia DeHavilland, one of Hollywood's greatest dramatic actresses will be seen as "Candida" when it opens at the Pocono Playhouse on Monday night, June 18. Kendall Clark will have the role of her husband with Richard Shephard cast as the lovelorn poet. Others in the cast include Frank Leslie and Katherine Squire.

The play is under the supervision of Richard Bender and will continue from June 18 to 23, with matinees scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday. Reservations for seats may be made by calling Cresco 8401. Mail orders will be promptly filled.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

FOR MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1951

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — With proper self-confidence, pluck and perseverance, you can make appreciable gains notwithstanding some obstacles and contradictions. But don't confuse progress with plain force.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus) — Most inspiring period for surgery, chemistry, research, mechanics, notable advancement in construction, railroading, mining. Be wisely careful of health; may be tempted by credulity.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Especially good day for labor and employer alike. If right attitude, purely mental work, especially for the latter, may be accomplished. Do a sincere day's work without misgivings. Avoid useless legal and other entanglements.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Keep usefully occupied, don't depend wholly on others. Be sure of your ground. Be prompt about obligations—and you will get much farther than you think you can.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo) — State government affairs, aggressive action along wise lines whether in your regular business or other activities. Have fresh impulses. Take matters with ease, let others view their opinions.

August 23 to September 22 (Virgo) — Fairly stimulating for investments, merchandising, the cloth, the food, industry, military interests may have some difficulties; we will all have obstacles to overcome.

September 23 to October 23 (Libra) — Police, the military, civic workers, who handling children's activities and social service work lead the parade of the highly sponsored this good for good workers day.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio) — May have to put forth extra effort.

take a few reverses before you settle down to real progress. So don't quit readily—ever. Make sure of motives before going ahead.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius) — Some uncertain influences. Go about work sensibly, be ready for changing conditions, methods. Step aside rather than get involved with dissenters—but do not compromise on principle.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn) — Neither very good nor poor auspices, especially for undertakings pertaining to everyday business, money, property. Use best talents, knowledge at all times. Don't fret.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius) — Know well what is going on in the business and economic world and know better the nation's pulse; do better yourself. Don't assume too many obligations; conservative attitude counts.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces) — Especially artistic and purely mental tasks take prominent place today. But don't neglect duties, family, or loved ones—ever. Day needs strength, endurance, rightly used.

YOU BORN TODAY may well adopt work of unusual nature calling for quickness of mind. And you can bring others enjoyment from this. After work you are able to turn quickly to fun, some very different pursuit, something without a care in the world. But don't scatter your forces; protect energy, and watch out for those who prey upon your start, but you can often do more than one thing at once. Should have bright companions. Relax, rest at times. Seek education, art, and religion. Birthdate: Richard Strauss, composer; John Constable, Eng. painter.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 5. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.
